EUROPE ASKS BRITTON

The Reason For Her Immense Military Preparations.

BOER LOSS, 800; BRITISH; 250.

Rough Estimate of Casualties of the Bloody Battle Fought at Glencoe. Boers Driven From Almost Impregnable Position and Captured.

LONDON, Oct. 21.—It is reported that Great Britain's immense military preparations against two insignificant republics are viewed with considerable curiosity in some of the European capitals, notably Paris and St. Petersburg. Notes have been exchanged on the subject, and it is even hinted in unofficial quarters that inquiries will be addressed to the British government as to the contemplated absorption of the two republics by the British empire.

The Press association announced with an air of authority that the government's plan is to terminate the war in the speediest manner possible after the forts at Pretoria and Johannesburg have been razed and then to promulgate, by order of the queen in council, a new constitution for a group of five federal states—Cape Colony, the Transvaal, Natal, the Orange River Free State and Rhodesia—under the title of the Dominion of South Africa, the crown to nominate a governor general and the five states having power each to elect its own lieutenant governor and to have local legislatures with a dominion parliament to meet at Cape Town.

With some modifications, the scheme is based on lines similar to those of the Canadian government. The absence of details regarding the British losses in the engagement at Glencoe camp causes the deepest anxiety, and the war office is besieged by relatives and friends of those making up the forces that took part in the fight. Among the callers was the Duke of Abercorn, who made anxious inquiries.

GLENCOE CAMP, Oct. 21.—After about eight hours of continuous heavy fighting, Talana hill was carried by the Dublin Fusiliers and the King's Rifles, under cover of a well served artillery fire by the Thirteenth and Sixty-ninth batteries. The Boers, who threatened the British rear, retired.

The night was almost an exact counterpart of that of Majuba hill, except that the positions of the Boer and British forces were reversed.

General Symons was severely, but not dangerously, wounded.

General Symons was shot through the thigh, but no bones were broken. He is cheerful.

A rough estimate places the British loss at 250 killed or wounded, and that of the Boers at 800.

The seizure of Dundee hill by the Boers was a surprise, for, although the pickets had been exchanging shots all night, it was not until a shell boomed over the town into the camp that their presence was discovered. Then the shells came fast.

The batteries from the camp took up positions to the south of the town and after about a quarter hour's magnificent firing silenced the guns on the hills.

Directly the Boer guns ceased firing, General Symons ordered the infantry to move on the position. The infantry charge was magnificent. The way the King's Royal Rifles and the Dublin Fusiliers stormed the position was one of the most splendid sights ever seen. The firing of the Boers was not so deadly as might have been expected from troops occupying such an excellent position, but the infantry lost heavily going up the hill.

The enemy's guns, so far as the correspondent could see, were all abandoned, for the Boers had no time to remove them. A stream of fugitives poured down the hillside into the valley, where the battle went on with no abatement.

General Symons was wounded early in the action, and the command then devolved on Major Yale.

The enemy, as they fled, were followed by the cavalry, mounted infantry and artillery. The direction taken was to the eastward. At the latest reports the cavalry had not returned.

Some say that four and some say five guns were captured. The Boer artillery firing was weak.

While this was going on, one battery of artillery, the Eighteenth hussars and the mounted infantry, with a part of the Leicester regiment, got on the enemy's flank, and as the Boers streamed wildly down the hills making for the main road, they found their retreat had been cut off, but they rallied for awhile and there was severe firing, with considerable loss on each side. Many of the enemy surrendered.

DURBAN, Oct. 21.—It was officially announced that the Boers retired from Hattingspruit.

LONDON, Oct. 21.—A report from Ladysmith said that the Boer advance on Hattingspruit was composed of about 9,000 men. The Fifteenth battery and the Leicester regiment went to meet them.

The war office has received the following official dispatch from Ladysmith filed yesterday afternoon:

"This from Glencoe: 'We were attacked this morning at daylight by a force roughly estimated at 4,000. They had placed four or five guns in position on a hill 5,400 yards east of our camp, and they fired plugged shells. Their artillery did no damage. Our infantry formed for attack, and we got our guns into position. After the position of the enemy had been shelled our infantry advanced to the attack, and after a hard fight, lasting until 1:30 p. m., an almost inaccessible position was taken, the enemy retiring eastward. All the Boer guns have been captured. We can see our soldiers at the top of the hill. Our cavalry and artillery are still out.'

"General Symons is severely wounded. Our losses are heavy. They will be telegraphed as soon as possible."

Advices from Pretoria announce that a special police of 400 non-British Outlanders has been organized, with the sanction of the Transvaal government to patrol the mining properties between Randfontein and Modderfontein, with a view of preventing willful damage.

It is not believed that the Transvaal government has any intention of damaging the mines, but danger is apprehended from the Boers on returning from the front after a possible defeat.

The mobilization is practically completed and it is said that more than 90 per cent of the reservists have rejoined the colors. This is considered eminently satisfactory.

The speed at which the army corps has been gotten together has excited the admiration of the German headquarters staff, and they have sent a semi-official message of congratulation through the British military attaché in Berlin to the service.

Advices from Mafeking, by way of Kimberley, reiterates the story of a Boer repulse there with severe losses. The British had Corporal Walsh and Corporal Parland killed and 14 men wounded.

ALIWAL NORTH, Cape Colony, Oct. 19.—(Delayed in transmission.)—The Boer force from Smithfield has moved to Bethulie, where 2,000 Boers are now concentrating. Their plan of campaign appears to be for the Rouxville contingent, crossing the Orange river ford, as they fear the north bridge is mined, to circumvent Aliwal North and to seize the railway. Simultaneously the Bethulie contingent, it appears, is to move across the border, seize the railway and proceed to Albert Junction, there to meet the Rouxville force. If this plan succeeds, the Boers expect the Dutch in Cape Colony to join them. The Rouxville force has artillery, including a Krupp gun.

SOUTHAMPTON, Oct. 21.—The transport Yorkshire, carrying the first troops of the special army corps for South Africa, cast off, the other transports following at regular intervals. The public were excluded from the docks during the embarkation, but immense throngs gathered outside, cheering and singing and bidding farewell to their friends as the trains passed in.

By Monday 17,000 men will have left for South Africa.

CAPE TOWN, Oct. 21.—A private message from Mafeking, undated, said: "Fight Monday. All right."

Messages from Kimberley, dated Oct. 17, say that the Boers still occupied their position at Shepfontein. They were lifting cattle and devastating everything.

Colonel Schneider Dead.

VIENNA, Oct. 21.—Colonel Schneider, the former Austrian military attaché at Paris whose name has been prominently connected with the alleged treason of former Captain Alfred Dreyfus of the French army, and who, it is generally understood, fought a duel about Oct. 13 with Captain Cuignet of the French army as a result of statements made by the captain at the Rennes court-martial, is dead.

Many Thousands Receive Relief.

SIMLA, Oct. 21.—The number of persons now receiving relief throughout India reaches 393,000.

BYRAN TO THE ENEMY

Hissing Opponents to His Findlay Meeting.

WOULDN'T ALLOW THEM REMOVED

Said He Could Stand Them a Half Hour If the People of Findlay Could Stand Them Always—Large Crowds at the Different Towns.

FINDLAY, O., Oct. 21.—Mr. Bryan made the last speech of his second day's tour in Ohio in this place. Findlay had the largest crowd and a torchlight procession. The first meeting of the evening was held in the ball park and the second in Marvin's Opera House. The audience in the opera house received Mr. Bryan by a division of sentiment, some cheering and a portion hissing. Mr. Bryan in the midst of the contending voices said: "I am glad there are Republicans here. [Applause.] This is the first time I have met men who came to hiss rather than listen. I am glad to speak to even hissing Republicans, because that is the only argument you can use to answer our arguments. I want to draw a picture of Abraham Lincoln and I want to do it for the benefit of you Mark Hanna Republicans. In the days of Abraham Lincoln the man was placed before the dollar. Those were not the days of Mark Hanna Republicans. In those days you Republicans stood for self-government. In 1856 Abraham Lincoln praised the Declaration of Independence as the greatest instrument of modern times."

The hissing continuing, a voice said: "Never mind the hissing; it is only from boys," to which Mr. Bryan rejoined:

"But what of the father who sends a boy here who does not know more than that. [Laughter.] Let them hiss."

A boy cried: "Maybe you think we can't."

Quietly Mr. Bryan said: "The boy is mistaken. What we can do is Republican doctrine; what we ought to do is Democratic doctrine." [Applause.]

A gentleman in the audience: "Mr. Chairman, there is an officer here, we can have them removed."

Mr. Bryan: "Never mind the officer. I can stand it to be with these people a half hour if you can stand it to be with them always." [Applause.]

LIM O., Oct. 21.—As the Bryan-McLean special was entering this city the rear trucks of the tender jumped the track, but it applied causing no damage. An immense concourse greeted the train at the depot and the procession to the public square was the greatest of any thus far in Ohio. In his speech Mr. Bryan supported the Ohio state ticket because the Zanesville platform reaffirmed the Chicago platform and correctly represented the Democratic party on all the great questions that now attract the attention of the American people. He again discussed the income tax law, trusts and silver.

BELLEFONTAINE, O., Oct. 21.—At this place Mr. Bryan recalled the fact that when he passed through in 1896 the Republicans all wore yellow ribbons to signify that they favored the gold standard and asked what they had to say to the action of their president in sending a commission to Europe to get rid of the gold standard? "And you farmers had to pay $100,000 to meet the expenses of that commission," said Mr. Bryan. "A commission that cried: 'Help, help, or we sink!' How do you like the gold standard now?"

Mr. Bryan spoke to large crowds at Napoleon and Ottawa. At the latter place at one point he said:

"Now, my friends," said Mr. Bryan, "I will trade votes in 1900 for votes this fall. If you will give us a large vote this fall I will be satisfied." [A voice: "That means McLean."]

"Yes, sir; that means McLean and everybody else."

THE AMERICA'S CUP

STAYS IN AMERICA.

British Challenger Shamrock Beaten in the Last and Deciding Race

by Columbia.

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—Through wild and hoary seas, in a breeze that approached the dignity of a gale, the gallant sloop Columbia vanquished the British challenger Shamrock by 6 minutes and 18 seconds actual time and 6 minutes and 34 seconds corrected time, thus completing the series for the America's cup with a magnificent rough weather duel and a glorious Yankee victory. The weather was the kind the Irish yachtsman had been wanting, but his boat failed to win. For the eleventh time the attempt of a foreigner to wrest from America the yachting supremacy of the world has failed.

To Sir Thomas Lipton, whose name is now added to the list of defeated aspirants for the honor of carrying the cup back across the Atlantic, failure was a crushing blow. His hope had been high. But, like the true sportsman that he is, the sting of defeat has left no bitterness and with undaunted courage he intimates that he may be back with a better boat to try again.

DEACONESS CELEBRATION.

Bishop McCabe Presided at Exercises of the M. E. Woman's Home Missionary Society at Pittsburg.

PITTSBURG, Oct. 21.—At the third day's session of the Methodist Episcopal Women's Home Missionary society convention at Christ church, Center and Liberty avenues, the devotional exercises were conducted by Mrs. Margaret Alspaugh of Anamosa, Ia. Mrs. W. P. Pope of Tecumseh, Mich., arose during this service and said that the day has been set apart by the Detroit and Michigan conferences as a day of fasting and prayer. She asked the prayers of the delegates for her friends in Michigan. The convention then went into a committee of the whole on finance to consider finances and appropriations. Mrs. Delia Lathrop Williams, the national treasurer of the society, presided, and reminded the delegates that the appropriations made the day before were all larger than those of last year. She suggested that if the same liberal spirit was maintained it would be necessary to cut down many of the appropriations. Different secretaries asked for appropriations for work in certain sections. Mrs. Mary Fisk Park presented her report as secretary of the bureau for west central states. This bureau has supervision of the New Jersey Industrial home, Morristown, Tenn.; Kent Industrial home, Greensboro, N. C., and the Ritter Industrial home, Athens, Tenn. Mrs. Park spoke encouragingly of the work at the New Jersey and Kent homes, where many girls are being educated and fitted for after life. The report was adopted. Mrs. E. W. Simpson of Troy, N. Y., secretary of the Indian bureau for New Mexico and Arizona, presented her report. The missions in charge of this bureau are at Jewett and Dulca, N. M., and are doing good work among the Indian children. Miss Fiencham, a Bohemian missionary worker in the coke regions, was introduced. She said there are 50,000 Slavs there, and she spends her time making house to house visitations and teaching these people the Gospel in their own language. Mrs. Anna Kent of East Orange, N. J., secretary of the Spanish bureau for New Mexico and Arizona, made her report. The results of the first year's work were exceedingly discouraging. Of late the work had been more encouraging. Mrs. H. C. Hedges of Mansfield, O., secretary of the bureau of Mississippi, reported. This bureau has the care of the Elizabeth L. Rust Industrial home, Holly Springs, Miss.; Bennett Industrial home, Clarkson, Miss., and the Bennett academy, Clarkson, Miss. Mrs. C. L. Roach of Washington conducted a prayer service. The afternoon session opened with devotional exercises by Miss E. A. Smith, superintendent of the Buffalo Deaconess home. Mrs. Jane Bancroft Robinson of Detroit reviewed the year's work of the deaconess' bureau and three-minute reports were received from the secretaries of deaconess' homes connected with the Woman's Home Missionary society. Rev. Dr. A. H. Ames, president of the national training school at Washington, spoke. Mrs. Anna Kent of East Orange, N. J., spoke of the work done at the Bancroft Rest home, and Mrs. S. W. Davis of Wilkesburg, Pa., of the work at the Thompson Rest home. Bishop C. C. McCabe presided at the deaconess' anniversary celebration last evening. The service opened with devotional exercises by Mrs. E. Turney, superintendent of the Philadelphia Deaconess' home. Miss Henrietta A. Bancroft of Washington gave an account of her experiences as a field secretary. Miss Iva May Durham of Normal, Ill., spoke of the work of the deaconess-at-large. Bishop C. C. McCabe made an address on the subject, "Help These Women."

MITCHELL THE CHOICE

Selected by the Pennsylvania Republican Leaders.

WILLING TO TAKE ADAMS' PLACE.

His Selection Will Likely Be Confirmed by the Republican State Committee This Afternoon at Harrisburg—It Is Said Mitchell Was Proposed by Stone.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 21.—It was understood that former United States Senator John I. Mitchell of Tioga county will be chosen to fill the vacancy on the Republican state ticket created by the withdrawal of Josiah R. Adams of this city, candidate for superior court judge. The state committee is meet here this afternoon to act on the matter.

Senator Quay, who is in Florida, was communicated with and he quickly wired his acquiescence to whatever the leaders on the ground might decide upon. Senator Penrose, who has been on a stumping tour in Ohio, arrived here and also looked with favor on Judge Mitchell's nomination. It is said that Judge Mitchell's name was advanced by Governor Stone, who is a Tioga countian and a warm friend of Judge Mitchell.

Other names mentioned for the vacancy were those of Judge Dimmer Beeber of this city, ex-Attorney General Palmer of Luzerne county, V. Gilpin Robinson of Delaware county, Judge Archbald of Lackawanna and Judge John H. Greer of Butler.

NEGRO CREMATED, ROPED TO A STAKE.

Horrible Punishment For an Awful Crime, the Burning of a Woman and Four Children.

CANTON, Miss., Oct. 21.—The little town of St. Anne, 20 miles east of Canton, in Leake county, was the scene of a horrible affair—a sequel to the burning of the Gambrell family. Joe Leflore, a negro, who was captured by a posse, confessed that he, in company with Bob and Andrew Smith, other negroes, had tied Mrs. Gambrell and her four children to the floor of the house, saturated the surroundings with kerosene and burned the unfortunate people alive. The negro after the confession of the crime was promptly roped to a stake in the Gambrell yard and burned to a crisp, while the citizens looked on in grim silence.

Another negro, Bob Smith, was saved just in the nick of time, as some doubt existed as to his guilt.

Andrew Smith escaped from the mob while Leflore was being burned and has not yet been captured. Bob Smith was tied to another stake and a fire started, though he was finally released, as there was a possibility of his proving his innocence.

Andrew Smith will be recaptured and if it is proven that he and his brother Bob are guilty, it is thought that no power can save them from a similar fate to that meted out to Leflore.

INGHAM AND NEWITT GUILTY.

Jury at Philadelphia So Found, and Recommended Mercy.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 21.—Ellery Pin Ingham, ex-United States district attorney, and Harvey K. Newitt, his law partner and former assistant district attorney, were found guilty of conspiracy and bribery in connection with the revenue stamp counterfeiting plot headed by William M. Jacobs and William L. Kendig, the Lancaster cigar manufacturers.

The bail of the defendants was increased from $20,000 to $40,000 and was furnished by Alexander Balfour, a paper manufacturer of this city, and William H. Clark, cashier of the Quaker City National bank. A. S. L. Shields, counsel for the defendants, made an appeal for a new trial. No time was set for the argument.

Oil City Workman Killed.

OIL CITY, Oct. 21.—The wall of a building being erected by the National Transit company, for the proposed new steel plant, fell, burying a number of workmen in the ruins. A workman named Allen was killed. Two other men were seriously injured.

Rust Industrial home, Holly Springs, Miss.; Bennett Industrial home, Clarkson, Miss., and the Bennett academy, Clarkson, Miss. Mrs. C. L. Roach of Washington conducted a prayer service.

MITCHELL THE CHOICE

Selected by the Pennsylvania Republican Leaders.

WILLING TO TAKE ADAMS' PLACE.

His Selection Will Likely Be Confirmed by the Republican State Committee This Afternoon at Harrisburg—It Is Said Mitchell Was Proposed by Stone.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 21.—It was understood that former United States Senator John I. Mitchell of Tioga county will be chosen to fill the vacancy on the Republican state ticket created by the withdrawal of Josiah R. Adams of this city, candidate for superior court judge. The state committee is meet here this afternoon to act on the matter.

Senator Quay, who is in Florida, was communicated with and he quickly wired his acquiescence to whatever the leaders on the ground might decide upon. Senator Penrose, who has been on a stumping tour in Ohio, arrived here and also looked with favor on Judge Mitchell's nomination. It is said that Judge Mitchell's name was advanced by Governor Stone, who is a Tioga countian and a warm friend of Judge Mitchell.

Other names mentioned for the vacancy were those of Judge Dimmer Beeber of this city, ex-Attorney General Palmer of Luzerne county, V. Gilpin Robinson of Delaware county, Judge Archibald of Lackawanna and Judge John H. Greer of Butler.

NEGRO CREMATED, ROPED TO A STAKE.

Horrible Punishment For an Awful Crime, the Burning of a Woman and Four Children.

CANTON, Miss., Oct. 21.—The little town of St. Anne, 20 miles east of Canton, in Leake county, was the scene of a horrible affair—a sequel to the burning of the Gambrell family. Joe Leflore, a negro, who was captured by a posse, confessed that he, in company with Bob and Andrew Smith, other negroes, had tied Mrs. Gambrell and her four children to the floor of the house, saturated the surroundings with kerosene and burned the unfortunate people alive. The negro after the confession of the crime was promptly roped to a stake in the Gambrell yard and burned to a crisp, while the citizens looked on in grim silence.

Another negro, Bob Smith, was saved just in the nick of time, as some doubt existed as to his guilt.

Andrew Smith escaped from the mob while Leflore was being burned and has not yet been captured. Bob Smith was tied to another stake and a fire started, though he was finally released, as there was a possibility of his proving his innocence.

Andrew Smith will be recaptured and if it is proven that he and his brother Bob are guilty, it is thought that no power can save them from a similar fate to that meted out to Leflore.

INGHAM AND NEWITT GUILTY.

The bail of the defendants was increased from $20,000 to $40,000 and was furnished by Alexander Balfour, a paper manufacturer of this city, and William H. Clark, cashier of the Quaker City National bank. A. S. L. Shields, counsel for the defendants, made an appeal for a new trial. No time was set for the argument.

THE EVENING NEWS REVIEW.

15TH YEAR. NO. 114.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., SATURDAY, OCT. 21, 1899.

TWO CENTS

EUROPE ASKS BRITTON

The Reason For Her Immense Military Preparations.

BOER LOSS, 800; BRITISH, 250.

Enough Estimate of Casualties of the Bloody Battle Fought at Glencoe. Boers Driven From Almost Impregnable Position and Captured.

LONDON, Oct. 21.—It is reported that Great Britain's immense military preparations against two insignificant republics are viewed with considerable curiosity in some of the European capitals, notably Paris and St. Petersburg. Notes have been exchanged on the subject, and it is even hinted in unofficial quarters that inquiries will be addressed to the British government as to the contemplated absorption of the two republics by the British empire.

The Press association announced with an air of authority that the government's plan is to terminate the war in the speediest manner possible after the forts at Pretoria and Johannesburg have been razed and then to promulgate, by order of the queen in council, a new constitution for a group of five federal states—Cape Colony, the Transvaal, Natal, the Orange River Free State and Rhodesia—under the title of the Dominion of South Africa, the crown to nominate a governor general and the five states having power each to elect its own lieutenant governor and to have local legislatures with a dominion parliament to meet at Cape Town.

With some modifications, the scheme is based on lines similar to those of the Canadian government.

The absence of details regarding the British losses in the engagement at Glencoe camp causes the deepest anxiety, and the war office is besieged by relatives and friends of those making up the forces that took part in the fight. Among the callers was the Duke of Abercorn, who made anxious inquiries.

GLENCOE CAMP, Oct. 21.—After about eight hours of continuous heavy fighting, Talana hill was carried by the British. The Boers, who threatened the British rear, retired.

The night was almost an exact counterpart of that of Majuba hill, except that the positions of the Boer and British forces were reversed.

General Symons was severely, but not dangerously, wounded.

General Symons was shot through the thigh, but no bones were broken. He is cheerful.

A rough estimate places the British loss at 250 killed or wounded, and that of the Boers at 800.

The seizure of Dundee hill by the Boers was a surprise, for, although the pickets had been exchanging shots all night, it was not until a shell boomed over the town into the camp that their presence was discovered. Then the shells came fast.

The batteries from the camp took up positions to the south of the town and after about a quarter hour's magnificent firing silenced the guns on the hills.

Directly the Boer guns ceased firing, General Symons ordered the infantry to move on the position. The infantry charge was magnificent. The way the King's Royal Rifles and the Dublin Fusiliers stormed the position was one of the most splendid sights ever seen. The firing of the Boers was not so deadly as might have been expected from troops occupying such an excellent position, but the infantry lost heavily going up the hill.

The enemy's guns, so far as the correspondent could see, were all abandoned, for the Boers had no time to remove them. A stream of fugitives poured down the hillside into the valley, where the battle went on with no abatement.

General Symons was wounded early in the action, and the command then devolved on Major Yule.

The enemy, as they fled, were followed by the cavalry, mounted infantry and artillery. The direction taken was to the eastward. At the latest reports the cavalry had not returned.

Some say that four and some say five guns were captured. The Boer artillery firing was weak.

While this was going on, one battery of artillery, the Eighteenth hussars and the mounted infantry, with a part of the Leicester regiment, got on the enemy's flank, and as the Boers streamed wildly down the hills making for the main road, they found their retreat had been cut off, but they rallied for awhile and there was severe firing, with considerable loss on each side. Many of the enemy surrendered.

DURBAN, Oct. 21.—It was officially announced that the Boers retired from Hattingspruit.

LONDON, Oct. 21.—A report from Ladysmith said that the Boer advance on Hattingspruit was composed of about 9,000 men. The Fifteenth battery and the Leicester regiment went to meet them.

The war office has received the following official dispatch from Ladysmith filed yesterday afternoon:

"This from Glencoe: 'We were attacked this morning at daylight by a force roughly estimated at 4,000. They had placed four or five guns in position on a hill 5,400 yards east of our camp, and they fired plugged shells. Their artillery did no damage. Our infantry formed for attack, and we got our guns into position. After the position of the enemy had been shelled our infantry advanced to the attack, and after a hard fight, lasting until 1:30 p. m., an almost inaccessible position was taken, the enemy retreating eastward. All the Boer guns have been captured. We can see our soldiers at the top of the hill. Our cavalry and artillery are still out.'

"General Symons is severely wounded. Our losses are heavy. They will be telegraphed as soon as possible."

Advices from Pretoria announce that a special police of 400 non-British Outlanders has been organized, with the sanction of the Transvaal government to patrol the mining properties between Randfontein and Modderfontein, with a view of preventing willful damage.

It is not believed that the Transvaal government has any intention of damaging the mines, but danger is apprehended from the Boers on returning from the front after a possible defeat.

The mobilization is practically completed and it is said that more than 90 per cent of the reservists have rejoined the colors. This is considered eminently satisfactory.

The speed at which the army corps has been gotten together has excited the admiration of the German headquarters staff, and they have sent a semi-official message of congratulation through the British military attache in Berlin to the Boers.

Advices from Mafeking, by way of Kimberley, reiterates the story of a Boer repulse there with severe losses. The British had Corporal Walsh and Corporal Parland killed and 14 men wounded.

ALIWAAL NORTH, Cape Colony, Oct. 19.—(Delayed in transmission.)—The Boer force from Smithfield has moved to Bethulie, where 2,000 Boers are now concentrating. Their plan of campaign appears to be for the Rouxville contingent, crossing the Orange river ford, as they fear the north bridge is mined, to circumvent Aliwal North and to seize the railway. Simultaneously the Bethulie contingent, it appears, is to move across the border, seize the railway and proceed to Albert Junction, there to meet the Rouxville force. If this plan succeeds, the Boers expect the Dutch in Cape Colony to join them. The Rouxville force has artillery, including a Krupp gun.

SOUTHAMPTON, Oct. 21.—The transport Yorkshire, carrying the first troops of the special army corps for South Africa, cast off, the other transports following at regular intervals. The public were excluded from the docks during the embarkation, but immense throngs gathered outside, cheering and singing and bidding farewell to their friends as the trains passed in.

By Monday 17,000 men will have left for South Africa.

CAPE TOWN, Oct. 21.—A private message from Mafeking, undated, said:

"Fight Monday. All right." Messages from Kimberley, dated Oct. 17, say that the Boers still occupied their position at Shepfontein. They were lifting cattle and devastating everything.

Colonel Schneider Dead.

VIENNA, Oct. 21.—Colonel Schneider, the former Austrian military attache at Paris whose name has been prominently connected with the alleged treason of former Captain Alfred Dreyfus of the French army, and who, it is generally understood, fought a duel about Oct. 13 with Captain Cuignet of the French army as a result of statements made by the captain at the Rennes court-martial, is dead.

Many Thousands Receive Relief.

SIMLA, Oct. 21.—The number of persons now receiving relief throughout India reaches 393,000.

BYRAN TO THE ENEMY

Hissing Opponents to His Findlay Meeting.

WOULDN'T ALLOW THEM REMOVED

Said He Could Stand Them a Half Hour If the People of Findlay Could Stand Them Always—Large Crowds at the Different Towns.

FINDLAY, O., Oct. 21.—Mr. Bryan made the last speech of his second day's tour in Ohio in this place. Findlay had the largest crowd and a torchlight procession. The first meeting of the evening was held in the ball park and the second in Marvin's Opera House. The audience in the opera house received Mr. Bryan by a division of sentiment, some cheering and a portion hissing. Mr. Bryan in the midst of the contending voices said: "I am glad there are Republicans here. [Applause.] This is first time I have met men who came to hiss rather than listen. I am glad to speak to even hissing Republicans, because that is the only argument you can use to answer our arguments. I want to draw a picture of Abraham Lincoln and I want to do it for the benefit of you Mark Hanna Republicans. In the days of Abraham Lincoln the man was placed before the dollar. Those were not the days of Mark Hanna Republicans. In those days you Republicans stood for self-government. In 1856 Abraham Lincoln praised the Declaration of Independence as the greatest instrument of modern times."

The hissing continuing, a voice said: "Never mind the hissing; it is only from boys," to which Mr. Bryan rejoined:

"But what of the father who sends a boy here who does not know more than that. [Laughter.] Let them hiss."

A boy cried: "Maybe you think we can't."

Quietly Mr. Bryan said: "The boy is mistaken. What we can do is Republican doctrine; what we ought to do is Democratic doctrine." [Applause.]

A gentleman in the audience: "Mr. Chairman, there is an officer here, we can have them removed."

Mr. Bryan: "Never mind the officer. I can stand it to be with these people a half hour if you can stand it to be with them always." [Applause.]

LIM O., Oct. 21.—As the Bryan-McLean special was entering this city the rear trucks of the tender jumped the track, but it applied causing no damage. An immense concourse greeted the train at the depot and the procession to the public square was the greatest of any thus far in Ohio. In his speech Mr. Bryan supported the Ohio state ticket because the Zanesville platform reaffirmed the Chicago platform and correctly represented the Democratic party on all the great questions that now attract the attention of the American people. He again discussed the income tax law, trusts and silver.

BELLEVILLE, O., Oct. 21.—At this place Mr. Bryan recalled the fact that when he passed through in 1896 the Republicans all wore yellow ribbons to signify that they favored the gold standard and asked what they had to say to the action of their president in sending a commission to Europe to get rid of the gold standard? "And you farmers had to pay $100,000 to meet the expenses of that commission," said Mr. Bryan. "A commission that cried: 'Help, help, or we sink!' How do you like the gold standard now?"

Mr. Bryan spoke to large crowds at Napoleon and Ottawa. At the latter place at one point he said:

"Now, my friends," said Mr. Bryan, "I will trade votes in 1900 for votes this fall. If you will give us a large vote this fall I will be satisfied." [A voice: "That means McLean."]

"Yes, sir; that means McLean and everybody else."

THE AMERICA'S CUP STAYS IN AMERICA.

British Challenger Shamrock Beaten In the Last and Deciding Race by Columbia.

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—Through wild and hoary seas, in a breeze that approached the dignity of a gale, the gallant sloop Columbia vanquished the British challenger Shamrock by 6 minutes and 18 seconds actual time and 6 minutes and 34 seconds corrected time, thus completing the series for the America's cup with a magnificent rough weather duel and a glorious Yankee victory. The weather was the kind the Irish yachtsman had been wanting, but his boat failed to win. For the eleventh time the attempt of a foreigner to wrest from America the yachting supremacy of the world has failed.

To Sir Thomas Lipton, whose name is now added to the list of defeated aspirants for the honor of carrying the cup back across the Atlantic, failure was a crushing blow. His hope had been high. But, like the true sportsman that he is, the sting of defeat has left no bitterness and with undaunted courage he intimates that he may be back with a better boat to try again.

DEACONESS CELEBRATION.

Bishop McCabe Presided at Exercises of the M. E. Woman's Home Missionary Society at Pittsburg.

PITTSBURG, Oct. 21.—At the third day's session of the Methodist Episcopal Women's Home Missionary society convention at Christ church, Center and Liberty avenues, the devotional exercises were conducted by Mrs. Margaret Alspaugh of Anamosa, Ia. Mrs. W. P. Pope of Tecumseh, Mich., arose during this service and said that the day has been set apart by the Detroit and Michigan conferences as a day of fasting and prayer. She asked the prayers of the delegates for her friends in Michigan.

The convention then went into a committee of the whole on finance to consider finances and appropriations. Mrs. Deha Lathrop Williams, the national treasurer of the society, presided, and reminded the delegates that the appropriations made the day before were all larger than those of last year. She suggested that if the same liberal spirit was maintained it would be necessary to cut down many of the appropriations.

Different secretaries asked for appropriations for work in certain sections.

Mrs. Mary Fisk Park presented her report as secretary of the bureau for west central states. This bureau has supervision of the New Jersey Industrial home, Morristown, Tenn.; Kent Industrial home, Greensboro, N. C., and the Ritter Industrial home, Athens, Tenn. Mrs. Park spoke encouragingly of the work at the New Jersey and Kent homes, where many girls are being educated and fitted for after life. The report was adopted.

Mrs. E. W. Simpson of Troy, N. Y., secretary of the Indian bureau for New Mexico and Arizona, presented her report. The missions in charge of this bureau are at Jewett and Dulca, N. M., and are doing good work among the Indian children.

Miss Fitchkalt, a Bohemian missionary worker in the coke regions, was introduced. She said there are 50,000 Slavs there, and she spends her time making house to house visitations and teaching these people the Gospel in their own language.

Mrs. Anna Kent of East Orange, N. J., secretary of the Spanish bureau for New Mexico and Arizona, made her report. The results of the first year's work were exceedingly discouraging. Of late the work had been more encouraging.

Mrs. H. C. Hedges of Mansfield, O., secretary of the bureau of Mississippi, reported. This bureau has the care of the Elizabeth L. Rust Industrial home, Holly Springs, Miss.; Bennett Industrial home, Clarkson, Miss., and the Bennett academy, Clarkson, Miss. Mrs. C. L. Roach of Washington conducted a prayer service.

The afternoon session opened with devotional exercises by Miss E. A. Smith, superintendent of the Buffalo Deaconess home. Mrs. Jane Bancroft Robinson of Detroit reviewed the year's work of the deaconess' bureau and three-minute reports were received from the secretaries of deaconess' homes connected with the Woman's Home Missionary society. Davis of Wilkesburg, Pa., of the work at the Thompson Rest home.

Bishop C. C. McCabe presided at the deaconess' anniversary celebration last evening. The service opened with devotional exercises by Mrs. E. Turney, superintendent of the Philadelphia Deaconess' home. Miss Henrietta A. Bancroft of Washington gave an account of her experiences as a field secretary. Miss Iva May Durham of Normal, Ill., spoke of the work of the deaconess-at-large. Bishop C. C. McCabe made an address on the subject, "Help These Women."

THE ARMOUR COMPANY

A Superb Storage System For East Liverpool.

PERFECTION TRUEST ECONOMY

The Preservation of Products Has Been Reduced to a Science--The Public Is Invited to Inspect This Admirable Market on Tuesday, October 24.

The ARMOUR COMPANY never does things by halves. It caters to the public in the most acceptable manner, sparing no pains nor expense in securing the very best goods the market affords. This company has now over 300 branch houses throughout the United States, and the same spirit of enterprise controls in the branches as in the headquarters at Chicago.

The trade of the company has assumed massive proportions in East Liverpool and the surrounding country, and it has been found necessary to erect a building at this point which will meet the demands made by the public at large. Mr. F. Blair, of Chicago, an expert in the special feature of the erection of cold storage houses, and a trusted employe of Armour & Co., has had charge of the construction of the building at East Liverpool. The structure is now about completed and will be open for the inspection of the public on next Tuesday afternoon and evening, Oct. 24. Mr. J. W. Davis, well known in this city, is general manager at this point, and he extends a cordial invitation to our citizens to inspect affairs in the domain over which he has control.

The pencil shaver of the NEWS REVIEW visited the establishment the other day and received a warm welcome. Mr. Homer D. Clark has charge of the handsome little front office, furnished very nicely, with all appliances ready at hand for the expediting of practical business affairs.

Mr. Blair happened to be present and courteously offered to escort us through the establishment and point out to us the arrangement of affairs in general.

The basement or lower floor is devoted partly to storage and partly to the keeping of butter, eggs, etc. The facilities for cleanliness are simply superb. The floor is solid concrete, six inches thick, rendering it impervious to the attacks of rodents or other vermin. In flushing or washing the basement, the floor is so constructed that the water gravitates to the center and passes through traps to the sewer beneath. The butter and egg department is hemmed in by massive walls and doors, and is kept at the temperature desired by means of ventilators. The cold air is furnished from the cold storage room immediately overhead, passing downward through the medium of three registers. Full arrangements are made to keep the butter, eggs and pickled goods sweet and pure, and nothing is sold from this department but that which will pass the most critical and minute inspection.

Passing to the second floor we find a fine department devoted to smoked meats, so arranged and cared for as to make the display very desirable and appetizing to the man who is in search of tempting and palatable meats.

Then we step into an atmosphere which chills, and find ourselves in the cold storage room, devoted to fresh meats, embracing choicest beef, veal, pork, mutton, lamb, etc. The temperature is held at about four degrees above freezing. The ice bunkers controlling this atmosphere have a capacity of about 150 tons. The room is lighted brilliantly by means of electricity. Ventilators carry all foul air through the roof of the structure. Handsome shades are at the windows and windows are screened. An immense amount of lumber has been used in the construction of the building—lumber of the very best and finest quality. Enclosing the storage room are eighteen inches of boards and insulating paper, with air spaces separating the various layers. Galvanized iron lines the lower part of the smoked meat department and the cold storage room, rising four feet above the floors, enabling the cleansing thereof to be accomplished thoroughly and rapidly when house cleaning is in order. The upper walls and ceilings have been finished with four coats of the very best white paint, and the necessary hardware made use of is the very best and most durable manufactured.

Tramways, overhead, pass from the outer to the inner rooms, passing in every direction in the departments, controlled by a new system of "switches," a device which must be seen and inspected in order to be fully understood and appreciated. It is the "Rice-Bittenmiller" patent, a new thing, just placed upon the market, Mr. Blair assuring the writer that this is the second building in which it has been made use of.

The cars loaded with meat are run in upon the switch just outside the main building, and the great beeves are then transferred to the hook attached to the tramway leading to the cold storage room, the use of the "Rice-Bittenmiller" switch enabling the operator to place, with the greatest ease and celerity, the great masses of beef at any point in the room desired, where they remain until sold, when they are run out and weighed and loaded at the transfer platform, subject to delivery at the option of the purchaser, delivery wagons being always in readiness by the Armour company.

Elevators, half automatic, are made use of in passing goods from the lower to the upper floors, doors shutting automatically, assuring absolute safety to operator. The upper or third story is used as a storage room and ice bunker, great quantities of ice being consumed yearly.

Manager Davis informs the scribe that this storehouse controls all points from Rochester to Alliance, including Wellsville, Hammondsville, Irondale, Kensington, Hanoverton, Salineville and other points, and that he is ever ready to meet any and every demand made for the splendid products of the Armour company. Verbal or written orders will receive prompt attention, while the call of telephone No. 17 will be promptly answered and legitimate orders complied with instant.

A pleasing feature in connection with the Armour company is that it caters to home industry in every legitimate business way and manner, securing supplies of every kind possible from our local merchants and business men, and giving employment to local laborers and mechanics.

Lady demonstrators will be on hand on next Tuesday afternoon and evening, October 24, and they will take special pleasure in catering to the wishes and desires of visitors, while courteous attendants will do their utmost to make the public at large welcome to the inspection of this splendid industry added to our bustling pottery center.

Some Pertinent Questions That Can Be Answered With One Reply.

Why is it that in East Liverpool and its suburbs with a combined population of 1,400 there is only one medical preparation which gives statements from residents to back up its representations?

Why is it that Doan's Kidney Pills do this in East Liverpool as in every other town and city of any importance in the Union?

Why is it that there are advertised a every newspaper a dozen remedies, and only one can supply local proof, local endorsement of its claims?

The solution of the problem is simple. Only one remedy has the curing and staying power. Other remedies make all kinds of gigantic yet futile efforts to get local proof but the attempt ends in producing a statement or two from places that as far as East Liverpool is concerned might just as well live in the moon.

Here is East Liverpool proof which backs up the merits.

Mrs. William James who lives at 283 Third street, says: "I was troubled off and on for eight years with a weakness of the back and kidneys, a dull aching pain across my loins, up under my shoulder blades and rheumatic pains in my right shoulder. I was very susceptible to changes in the weather and was so bad at times that I could scarcely stand and support my own weight. The trouble affected my nervous system, causing a frequent fluttering of the heart and shortness of breath. I generally resorted to porous plasters, but the relief was only temporary. I got Doan's Kidney Pills at the W. & W. pharmacy and obtained instant relief. The symptoms all left, and there was nothing wrong with my kidneys after the treatment."

Doan's Kidney Pills are for sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Mailed by Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S. Remember the name Doan's and take no other.

Sewerpipe Works to Start In February.

STORY COMES FROM COMPANY

Will Make Sagger Clay at Laughlin's New Plant Monday Morning—An Oil Well Being Drilled on the Fisher Farm. Burning Old Ties.

Again the time has been set for the starting of the Knowles, Taylor & Anderson sewerpipe works and February 1 is the date set for resuming. When Mr. T. F. Anderson left for the south recently he stated he did not know when the works would start, but the statement has been made by one of the Anderson company whose authority on the matter cannot be questioned. It will soon be a year since the last pipe was made and all the men who worked at the plant before it shut down have secured positions elsewhere. The starting of the works would be welcomed by everyone residing in East End. With this plant and the new potteries in operation, East End would be a busy suburb.

NEXT MONDAY

Sagger Clay Will Be Mixed by Steam in Laughlin's New Plant.

On Monday morning it is the intention of the Laughlin Pottery company to start the mixing of sagger clay at their new plant by steam. Dixon says it will be "the only" road in East End when it is completed.

A Dangerous Place.

During the past 10 days two car doors have fallen from freight cars as they were passing Mulberry street. One of these doors is now standing back of the bell tower.

THE ARMOUR COMPANY

A Superb Storage System For East Liverpool.

PERFECTION TRUEST ECONOMY

The Preservation of Products Has Been Reduced to a Science—The Public Is Invited to Inspect This Admirable Market on Tuesday, October 24.

The ARMOUR COMPANY never does things by halves. It caters to the public in the most acceptable manner, sparing no pains nor expense in securing the very best goods the market affords. This company has now over 300 branch houses throughout the United States, and the same spirit of enterprise controls in the branches as in the headquarters at Chicago.

The trade of the company has assumed massive proportions in East Liverpool and the surrounding country, and it has been found necessary to erect a building at this point which will meet the demands made by the public at large. Mr. F. Blair, of Chicago, an expert in the special feature of the erection of cold storage houses, and a trusted employe of Armour & Co., has had charge of the construction of the building at East Liverpool. The structure is now about completed and will be open for the inspection of the public on next Tuesday afternoon and evening, Oct. 24. Mr. J. W. Davis, well known in this city, is general manager at this point, and he extends a cordial invitation to our citizens to inspect affairs in the domain over which he has control.

The pencil shaver of the NEWS REVIEW visited the establishment the other day and received a warm welcome. Mr. Homer D. Clark has charge of the handsome little front office, furnished very nicely, with all appliances ready at hand for the expediting of practical business affairs.

Mr. Blair happened to be present and courteously offered to escort us through the establishment and point out to us the arrangement of affairs in general.

The basement or lower floor is devoted partly to storage and partly to the keeping of butter, eggs, etc. The facilities for cleanliness are simply superb. The floor is solid concrete, six inches thick, rendering it impervious to the attacks of rodents or other vermin. In flushing or washing the basement, the floor is so constructed that the water gravitates to the center and passes through traps to the sewer beneath. The butter and egg department is hemmed in by massive walls and doors, and is kept at the temperature desired by means of ventilators. The cold air is furnished from the cold storage room immediately overhead, passing downward through the medium of three registers. Full arrangements are made to keep the butter, eggs and pickled goods sweet and pure, and nothing is sold from this department but that which will pass the most critical and minute inspection.

Passing to the second floor we find a fine department devoted to smoked meats, so arranged and cared for as to make the display very desirable and appetizing to the man who is in search of tempting and palatable meats.

Then we step into an atmosphere which chills, and find ourselves in the cold storage room, devoted to fresh meats, embracing choicest beef, veal, pork, mutton, lamb, etc. The temperature is held at about four degrees above freezing. The ice bunkers controlling this atmosphere have a capacity of about 150 tons. The room is lighted brilliantly by means of electricity. Ventilators carry all foul air through the roof of the structure. Handsome shades are at the windows and windows are screened. An immense amount of lumber has been used in the construction of the building—lumber of the very best and finest quality. Enclosing the storage room are eighteen inches of boards and insulating paper, with air spaces separating the various layers. Galvanized iron lines the lower part of the smoked meat department and the cold storage room, rising four feet above the floors, enabling the cleansing thereof to be accomplished thoroughly and rapidly when house cleaning is in order. The upper walls and ceilings have been finished with four coats of the very best white paint, and the necessary hardware made use of is the very best and most durable manufactured.

Tramways, overhead, pass from the outer to the inner rooms, passing in every direction in the departments, controlled by a new system of "switches," a device which must be seen and inspected in order to be fully understood and appreciated. It is the "Rice-Bittenmiller" patent, a new thing, just placed upon the market, Mr. Blair assuring the writer that this is the second building in which it has been made use of.

Some Pertinent Questions That Can Be Answered With One Reply.

Why is it that in East Liverpool and its suburbs with a combined population of 1,400 there is only one medical preparation which gives statements from residents to back up its representations?

Why is it that Doan's Kidney Pills do this in East Liverpool as in every other town and city of any importance in the Union?

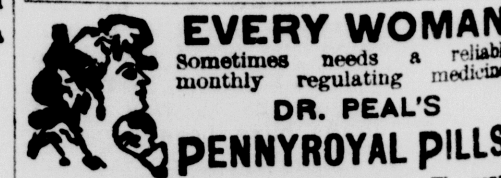

Why is it that there are advertised a every newspaper a dozen remedies and only one can supply local proof, local endorsement of its claims?

The solution of the problem is simple. Only one remedy has the curing and staying power. Other remedies make all kinds of gigantic yet futile efforts to get local proof but the attempt ends in producing a statement or two from places that as far as East Liverpool is concerned might just as well live in the moon.

Here is East Liverpool proof which backs up the merits.

Mrs. William James who lives at 283 Third street, says: "I was troubled off and on for eight years with a weakness of the back and kidneys, a dull aching pain across my loins, up under my shoulder blades and rheumatic pains in my right shoulder. I was very susceptible to changes in the weather and was so bad at times that I could scarcely stand and support my own weight. The trouble affected my nervous system, causing a frequent fluttering of the heart and shortness of breath. I generally resorted to porous plasters, but the relief was only temporary. I got Doan's Kidney Pills at the W. & W. pharmacy and obtained instant relief. The symptoms all left, and there was nothing wrong with my kidneys after the treatment."

Doan's Kidney Pills are for sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Mailed by Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S. Remember the name Doan's and take no other.

WINE OF CARDUI

HEALTHY OLD AGE.

LARUE, BENTON CO. ARK., Aug. 4.
I am 49 years old and have been suffering with Change of Life. I had flooding spells so bad that none thought I could live. My husband got me Wine of Cardui and it saved my life. I am like another person since taking it.

MRS. E. B. TOWNSEND.

WINE of Cardui

It is the devout wish of nearly all people to live to a ripe old age. None of us want to die young. This universal desire can be realized if care be taken of the health in early and middle life. A little precaution then will add many years to our existence. Death can be kept away a long time. Happy, healthy old age will be the lot of the woman who promptly corrects the ailments which afflict her sex. In youth, Wine of Cardui will take the female child safely over the dividing line between girlhood and womanhood. As a wife she needs it to help her through the trials of pregnancy and childbirth with as little discomfort as possible. At the Change of Life it will help her over the dangerous place that appears in her pathway between 40 and 50. Then will come many years of truly blissful existence. She will grow old slowly and gracefully. To the last she will preserve that charm and beauty which are always characteristic of perfectly healthy grandmothers. It is for women alone to decide whether they will be healthy or sick. The remedy for their sickness is close at hand.

One of the local coal dealers informed the NEWS REVIEW this morning that, notwithstanding reports to the contrary, the coal famine was still on. WINE OF CARDUI

HEALTHY OLD AGE.

LARUE, BENTON CO. ARK., Aug. 4.
I am 49 years old and have been suffering with Change of Life. I had flooding spells so bad that none thought I could live. My husband got me Wine of Cardui and it saved my life. I am like another person since taking it.

MRS. E. B. TOWNSEND.

Wine of Cardui

It is the devout wish of nearly all people to live to a ripe old age. None of us want to die young. This universal desire can be realized if care be taken of the health in early and middle life. A little precaution then will add many years to our existence. Death can be kept away a long time. Happy, healthy old age will be the lot of the woman who promptly corrects the ailments which afflict her sex. In youth, Wine of Cardui will take the female child safely over the dividing line between girlhood and womanhood. As a wife she needs it to help her through the trials of pregnancy and childbirth with as little discomfort as possible. At the Change of Life it will help her over the dangerous place that appears in her pathway between 40 and 50. Then will come many years of truly blissful existence. She will grow old slowly and gracefully. To the last she will preserve that charm and beauty which are always characteristic of perfectly healthy grandmothers. It is for women alone to decide whether they will be healthy or sick. The remedy for their sickness is close at hand.

DIDN'T Bryan talk in Ohio in '96?

EVERY vote for McLean is a vote for Aguinado.

ONCE more Democratic success is the hope of rebels.

LIPTON is now convinced that it was never intended for a tea cup.

PRIZEFIGHTING and yachting are in the same class. Wind is indispensable to both.

PERHAPS Bryan is assisting McLean because of "the money that is in it, not the honor."

THE Salem Herald is printing some very fine dog news these days. Probably prefers that to boosting McLean.

If the correspondents keep on killing off Boers 300 and 1,500 at a clip the war will be over in a week through shortage of Boers.

SOME of the war correspondents who distinguished themselves as long distance runners during the Spanish-American can war seem to have been assigned to duty on the Transvaal.

THE FIRST LECTURE.

John Temple Graves has a national reputation as an orator and lecturer. He will open the high school course on Oct. 26 with his splendid lecture: "The Reign of the Demagogue." Mr. Graves is a southern editor, who has been on the lecture platform some years and has everywhere met with flattering success. His delivery is perfect, his style logical and his matter instructive and interesting. East Liverpool people who attend his lecture will enjoy an intellectual treat.

A CONVENIENCE.

Next to having the county seat moved to this city, or having a steam, electric or automobile line between here and Lisbon, the holding of court at Wells-ville is the greatest convenience the people of the southern portion of the county could have in the way of accessible justice. The former session at Wells-ville was found to be of great advantage, and from the number of cases from this end of the county now on the list, the coming session will be equally advantageous in the way of saving time and money to those interested and to the county officials and taxpayers.

MAKE IT BIG.

It is not enough that Ohio should go Republican this fall. The majority should be so big that McLeanism will be buried forever. Bryan and Aguinado must get no comfort from a shrunken Republican vote. Democracy must have no moral victory. The Republicans of East Liverpool and Columbiana county will fail in their full duty if every Republican vote is not polled November 7. It will not do to think that McLean has no chance and to stay at home. Democrats have been elected in rock-ribbed Republican states by such over-confidence. Get out the vote. The majority cannot be too big.

DON'T DEAL IN FAKES.

Don't take any stock in what are best termed "FAIRY TALES." Support first-class home industries, solid and substantial, in preference to taking the CHANCES offered by fluent and persuasive strangers, men who have gold bricks to offer in exchange for the very smallest investment on your part. Business sense and ordinary prudence will save you from being victimized. Don't be too greedy in the race for wealth. All is not gold that glitters. We have fine savings institutions in East Liverpool—organizations which are solid and reputable and to be relied upon. Slow and sure oftentimes wins the race in business contests. Be wise and make judicious investments in home institutions. Investors in the "American Investors' company" will fully appreciate this editorial.

NEWS OF THE POTTERY WORLD

What Is Going On Around the Plants of the Ceramic City and Other Pottery Centers.

The decorating department at the Salem pottery has not started yet and no head decorator has been engaged. The plant will not be ready to ship any decorated goods until November. Some white ware has already been shipped.

The kilnmen at the Mercer, Trenton, are working overtime.

The erection of the McCoy stoneware pottery at Roseville, O., has stopped because the bricklayers will not handle non-union brick.

Yesterday cars of ware were sent out by Thompson's to Kansas; Knowles, Taylor & Knowles' to San Francisco, and Standard to New Orleans.

Since Mrs. John Owens returned to the city many old English potters have called at her home to inquire about the potteries in the old country. While in England Mrs. Owens visited many plants and found them all to be rushed with orders, and in some instances the clay shops were making overtime. Many of the English potters in Liverpool have worked in the same shops which Mrs. Owens visited.

The East Palestine pottery is full up on lower priced goods, but can still fill orders on the better grades.

S. W. Smith, for several years a packer at the Knowles, Taylor & Knowles, left for Cleveland this morning, where he has taken a position as packer in a jobbing house at that place.

A. D. Wilson, who has been in the east for the Toronto pottery for several weeks, returned to the city last night. He reports trade very good.

Decorators and kilnhands are scarce and some of the new potteries are having their troubles in securing workmen in these departments.

The strike at the East Liverpool is still unsettled.

The Weir Pottery company, of Monmouth, Ill., have begun the erection of their new plant and expect to have it ready for business January 1. The carpenters will commence work as soon as possible, and when started between 60 and 75 men will be employed. The site has been purchased by the Monmouth Business Men's association, and will be donated to the new industry.

Vice President Jesse Jackson of the Brotherhood, will soon organize another local in Wheeling.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Powell, now of Sebring, but formerly of Paris, a daughter. As this is the first birth that has occurred in Sebring the parents are highly elated.

Charles Bowers, of the Knowles, Taylor & Knowles old end, is ill with lead colic.

The kilnmen at the Diamond have worked at night upon several occasions during the week. Last night it was after 10 o'clock when they finished.

The Crockery Journal says the active demand for kilnmen here will become more urgent when the new potteries commence operations. The extra demand for decorators has been met by all the plants educating operatives.

To the regular demand is now being added the extra orders for fine holiday goods, and these include all the finest grades of dinner ware in china semi-porcelain and porcelain, decorated novelties and specialties of all kinds, and the demand for small decorated odds and ends is the largest ever experienced. —China, Glass and Lamps.

White's pottery, of Utica, N. Y., was incorporated last week with $50,000 capital to manufacture crockery. Incorporators: Charles M. White, N. E. White, E. D. Fuller, all of Utica.

There is no change in the sales schedule. A firmness on present lines is maintained. No one now seems to have any fear of losing orders by demanding the regular scale, as all are so full that there is nowhere else for the customer to go.—Crockery Journal.

The remainder of this year will show a marvelous increase in production over the last two months of any preceding year.

The furnaces in one of the glost kilns at the Murphy pottery were repaired today.

The Wheeling pottery reports a demand for pressers.

The Keswick pottery is now in full operation.

New York reports a steady flow of trade to home manufacturers, and a falling off in the import trade.

Edward Menge, of East Palestine, is now a jiggerman at the Warwick, Wheeling.

Wm. Connelly, of this city, is now one of the Riverside's Wheeling pottery workers.

Trenton reports orders up to the limit, and more coming in every day, every establishment in the city is behind on shipments.

The Quaker Valley plant at Rogers was started five years ago by three young men from the East Palestine pottery, who put in about $5,000. The town gave a bonus of $5,000 and they borrowed $5,000 more, giving a mortgage as security. The plant cost $11,500. They have sold all the stock on hand and are being pressed, it is said, for two or three bills amounting to about $1,500. They have been doing a good business, so far as volume went, says China, Glass and Lamps, but at losing prices, and have just turned down enough orders to run them the rest of the year.

DEAD LETTER OFFICE

Sends Back a Letter From an East Liverpool Wife to Her Husband.

Postmaster W. H. Surles this morning received from the dead letter office a letter mailed in this city May 12 last by Mrs. Ida McComber to her husband, Asa McComber, at El Reno, O. T. The postmaster there sent the letter to Kingfisher, O. T., whence it was returned to the dead letter office.

The letter contains a photograph of a fine baby girl, and mentions D. S. Carr, of Steubenville, as an uncle. Postmaster Surles was unable to locate Mrs. McComber, and if she will call at the post-office she can secure her letter and photograph.

A BAD CROWD.

The Police Should Disperse a Crowd Who Loaf on Sixth Street.

The police should make an effort to break up the crowd of small boys that infest Sixth street in front of the Grand Opera House. The boys congregate there every night and make life miserable for every person that passes. Last night they had for their victim a country boy, but spectators interfered and dispersed the crowd. Some wholesale arrests would have the desired effect.

DIDN'T Bryan talk in Ohio in '96?

EVERY vote for McLean is a vote for Aguinado.

ONCE more Democratic success is the hope of rebels.

LIPTON is now convinced that it was never intended for a tea cup.

PRIZEFIGHTING and yachting are in the same class. Wind is indispensable to both.

PERHAPS Bryan is assisting McLean because of "the money that is in it, not the honor."

THE Salem Herald is printing some very fine dog news these days. Probably prefers that to boosting McLean.

If the correspondents keep on killing off Boers 300 and 1,500 at a clip the war will be over in a week through shortage of Boers.

SOME of the war correspondents who distinguished themselves as long distanceliars during the Spanish-American war seem to have been assigned to duty on the Transvaal.

THE FIRST LECTURE.

John Temple Graves has a national reputation as an orator and lecturer. He will open the high school course on Oct. 26 with his splendid lecture: "The Reign of the Demagogue." Mr. Graves is a southern editor, who has been on the lecture platform some years and has everywhere met with flattering success. His delivery is perfect, his style logical and his matter instructive and interesting. East Liverpool people who attend his lecture will enjoy an intellectual treat.

A CONVENIENCE.

Next to having the county seat moved to this city, or having a steam, electric or automobile line between here and Lisbon, the holding of court at Wells-ville is the greatest convenience the people of the southern portion of the county could have in the way of accessible justice. The former session at Wells-ville was found to be of great advantage, and from the number of cases from this end of the county now on the list, the coming session will be equally advantageous in the way of saving time and money to those interested and to the county officials and taxpayers.

MAKE IT BIG.

It is not enough that Ohio should go Republican this fall. The majority should be so big that McLeanism will be buried forever. Bryan and Aguinado must get no comfort from a shrunken Republican vote. Democracy must have no moral victory. The Republicans of East Liverpool and Columbiana county will fail in their full duty if every Republican vote is not polled November 7. It will not do to think that McLean has no chance and to stay at home. Democrats have been elected in rock-ribbed Republican states by such over-confidence. Get out the vote. The majority cannot be too big.

DON'T DEAL IN FAKES.

Don't take any stock in what are best termed "FAIRY TALES." Support first-class home industries, solid and substantial, in preference to taking the CHANCES offered by fluent and persuasive strangers, men who have gold bricks to offer in exchange for the very smallest investment on your part. Business sense and ordinary prudence will save you from being victimized. Don't be too greedy in the race for wealth. All is not gold that glitters. We have fine savings institutions in East Liverpool—organizations which are solid and reputable and to be relied upon. Slow and sure oftentimes wins the race in business contests. Be wise and make judicious investments in home institutions. Investors in the "American Investors' company" will fully appreciate this editorial.

NEWS OF THE POTTERY WORLD

What Is Going On Around the Plants of the Ceramic City and Other Pottery Centers.

The decorating department at the Salem pottery has not started yet and no head decorator has been engaged. The plant will not be ready to ship any decorated goods until November. Some white ware has already been shipped.

The kilnmen at the Mercer, Trenton, are working overtime.

The erection of the McCoy stoneware pottery at Roseville, O., has stopped because the bricklayers will not handle non-union brick.

Yesterday cars of ware were sent out by Thompson's to Kansas; Knowles, Taylor & Knowles' to San Francisco, and Standard to New Orleans.

Since Mrs. John Owens returned to the city many old English potters have called at her home to inquire about the potteries in the old country. While in England Mrs. Owens visited many plants and found them all to be rushed with orders, and in some instances the clay shops were making overtime. Many of the English potters in Liverpool have worked in the same shops which Mrs. Owens visited.

The East Palestine pottery is full up on lower priced goods, but can still fill orders on the better grades.

S. W. Smith, for several years a packer at the Knowles, Taylor & Knowles, left for Cleveland this morning, where he has taken a position as packer in a jobbing house at that place.

A. D. Wilson, who has been in the east for the Toronto pottery for several weeks, returned to the city last night. He reports trade very good.

Decorators and kilnhands are scarce and some of the new potteries are having their troubles in securing workmen in these departments.

The strike at the East Liverpool is still unsettled.

The Weir Pottery company, of Monmouth, Ill., have begun the erection of their new plant and expect to have it ready for business January 1. The carpenters will commence work as soon as possible, and when started between 60 and 75 men will be employed. The site has been purchased by the Monmouth Business Men's association, and will be donated to the new industry.

Vice President Jesse Jackson of the Brotherhood, will soon organize another local in Wheeling.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Powell, now of Sebring, but formerly of Paris, a daughter. As this is the first birth that has occurred in Sebring the parents are highly elated.

Charles Bowers, of the Knowles, Taylor & Knowles old end, is ill with lead colic.

The kilnmen at the Diamond have worked at night upon several occasions during the week. Last night it was after 10 o'clock when they finished.

The Crockery Journal says the active demand for kilnmen here will become more urgent when the new potteries commence operations. The extra demand for decorators has been met by all the plants educating operatives.

To the regular demand is now being added the extra orders for fine holiday goods, and these include all the finest grades of dinner ware in china, semi-porcelain and porcelain, decorated novelties and specialties of all kinds, and the demand for small decorated odds and ends is the largest ever experienced.—China, Glass and Lamps.

White's pottery, of Utica, N. Y., was incorporated last week with $50,000 capital to manufacture crockery. Incorporators: Charles M. White, N. E. White, E. D. Fuller, all of Utica.

There is no change in the sales schedule. A firmness on present lines is maintained. No one now seems to have any fear of losing orders by demanding the regular scale, as all are so full that there is nowhere else for the customer to go.—Crockery Journal.

The remainder of this year will show a marvelous increase in production over the last two months of any preceding year.

The furnaces in one of the glost kilns at the Murphy pottery were repaired today.

The Wheeling pottery reports a demand for pressers.

The Keswick pottery is now in full operation.

New York reports a steady flow of trade to home manufacturers, and a falling off in the import trade.

Edward Menge, of East Palestine, is now a jiggerman at the Warwick, Wheeling.

Wm. Connelly, of this city, is now one of the Riverside's Wheeling pottery workers.

Trenton reports orders up to the limit, and more coming in every day, every establishment in the city is behind on shipments.

The Quaker Valley plant at Rogers was started five years ago by three young men from the East Palestine pottery, who put in about $5,000. The town gave a bonus of $5,000 and they borrowed $5,000 more, giving a mortgage as security. The plant cost $11,500. They have sold all the stock on hand and are being pressed, it is said, for two or three bills amounting to about $1,500. They have been doing a good business, so far as volume went, says China, Glass and Lamps, but at losing prices, and have just turned down enough orders to run them the rest of the year.

DEAD LETTER OFFICE

Sends Back a Letter From an East Liverpool Wife to Her Husband.

Postmaster W. H. Surles this morning received from the dead letter office a letter mailed in this city May 12 last by Mrs. Ida McComber to her husband, Asa McComber, at El Reno, O. T. The postmaster there sent the letter to Kingfisher, O. T., whence it was returned to the dead letter office.

The letter contains a photograph of a fine baby girl, and mentions D. S. Carr, of Steubenville, as an uncle. Postmaster Surles was unable to locate Mrs. McComber, and if she will call at the post-office she can secure her letter and photograph.

A BAD CROWD.

The Police Should Disperse a Crowd Who Loaf on Sixth Street.

The police should make an effort to break up the crowd of small boys that infest Sixth street in front of the Grand Opera House. The boys congregate there every night and make life miserable for every person that passes. Last night they had for their victim a country boy, but spectators interfered and dispersed the crowd. Some wholesale arrests would have the desired effect.

KELLY WAS VERY MAD

Says His Wife Was Hit With a Stone

WHILE PLAYING THE PIANO

He Calls on the Mayor and Wants Redress at Once—Landis Went to Jail, Elmer Clendenning Paid a Fine—Other Police Cases.

A few days ago John Kelly, of Avondale street, appeared at the office of the mayor and told a heartrending tale of how Mrs. Elizabeth Reese had thrown a stone through his window and hit his wife, who was playing the piano. He was exceedingly wrothy and stated that the stone had struck his wife on the head. He swore out a complaint and Officer White went after Mrs. Reese, who appeared in court and stated that she had thrown a stone at some chickens and the stone might have hit Kelly's house, but if it did it was unintentional on her part. As she is a lady in every respect the mayor believed her story to be true and told her to go home and he would see if he could not straighten affairs with Kelly, believing that this was the best way to dispose of the case.

The mayor says he sent for Kelly and the next night he appeared, but was very unreasonable. He wouldn't settle anything, and stormed around the mayor's office at a rapid rate until the mayor grew very tired. His entire desire seemed to be to humiliate Mrs. Reese, and he was told to go home, and the case is at an end for the time being at least.

THE LAST CHAPTER

Of the Landis Case, and the Boy Went to Lisbon This Morning.

Mrs. J. E. Bowers, of Wheeling, arrived in the city last evening, and identified the goods that were found in the possession of James Landis. The boy was taken to Lisbon this morning by Officer White.

Robert Buchheit was arrested Thursday night by Officer White. The boy was disorderly at the Grand Opera House, and incidentally was trying to get into the gallery through a window. He got $6.60, which he paid.

Elmer Clendenning, who was arrested yesterday by Officer Whan, was fined $7.60. He paid up and was released.

The jail is empty, the last man to get out being Thomas Lee, who succeeded in raising money to pay his fine last evening.

There has been no action taken in the case of Mary Starkey, who was arrested by Officer Grim upon a charge of taking a gold watch and chain from Frank Gray. The parents of the child will be consulted in the matter.

BOARD MEETING.

Directors of the Y. M. C. A. Held an Interesting Session.

The board of directors of the Young Men's Christian association met last evening in the association parlors and transacted considerable business. J.

W. Manor, R. E. Rayman and W. S. Smith were elected to fill vacancies in the board caused by three members moving from the city. Committees were named to consider plans to have the auditorium remodeled for the purpose of holding evening classes and also to increase the water supply of the association, which at present is insufficient to the demand.

The board will meet for reorganization on the first Friday evening in November.

A STRINGENT FOOD LAW

Prohibits the Use of Arsenic or Alum in All Articles of Diet.

The law enacted by the Missouri legislature, a copy of which was recently published in our columns, and which prohibits the manufacture or sale of any article intended for food or to be used in the preparation of food, which contains alum, arsenic, ammonia, etc., places that state in the lead in the matter of sanitary legislation.

Laws restricting the use of alum in bread have been in force in England, Germany and France for many years. In this country, in Minnesota, Wisconsin, Michigan, Ohio, Kentucky and several other states, direct legislation in reference to the sale of alum baking powders has also been effected. In several of these states their sale is prohibited unless they are branded to show that they contain alum, and in the District of Columbia, under the laws of congress, the sale of bread containing alum has been made illegal.

Following are the names of some of the brands of baking powder sold in this vicinity which are shown by recent analysis to contain alum. Housekeepers and grocers should cut the list out and keep it for reference:

Baking Powder Containing Alum.
DAVIS' O. K. Contains Alum
R. B. Davis & Co., New York.
Crown. Contains Alum
J. P. Dieter Co., Chicago.
Kenton. Contains Alum
Potter-Parlin Co., Cincinnati.
Calumet. Contains Alum
Calumet Baking Powder Co., Chicago.
Delicatessen. Contains Alum
Delicatessen Baking Powder Co., New York.
I. C. Contains Alum
Jacques Mfg. Co., Chicago.

The housekeeper should bear in mind that alum makes a cheap baking powder. It costs but two cents a pound while cream of tartar costs thirty. The quality of the powder is therefore usually indicated by the price.

Looking For Lost Gold.

It is stated that yet another expedition is being arranged to recover the treasure lost when the ship General Grant foundered off the Auckland islands more than 30 years ago. The General Grant, with Ballarat miners on board, was on her way from Melbourne to London in 1866, when she was becalmed off the Auckland islands. Driven on to the shore by a heavy swell, the vessel was forced into a cave, where she sank, and out of 80 persons on board but a few were saved. It is known that there was a large quantity of gold on the General Grant, and many unsuccessful attempts have been made to recover it.

They have been spending some time in the east and stopped here on their way home. The arrangements at the party were perfect and the affair was a very pleasant one.

A STRINGENT FOOD LAW

Prohibits the Use of Arsenic or Alum in All Articles of Diet.

The law enacted by the Missouri legislature, a copy of which was recently published in our columns, and which prohibits the manufacture or sale of any article intended for food or to be used in the preparation of food, which contains alum, arsenic, ammonia, etc., places that state in the lead in the matter of sanitary legislation.

Laws restricting the use of alum in bread have been in force in England, Germany and France for many years. In this country, in Minnesota, Wisconsin, Michigan, Ohio, Kentucky and several other states, direct legislation in reference to the sale of alum baking powders has also been effected. In several of these states their sale is prohibited unless they are branded to show that they contain alum, and in the District of Columbia, under the laws of congress, the sale of bread containing alum has been made illegal.

Following are the names of some of the brands of baking powder sold in this vicinity which are shown by recent analysis to contain alum. Housekeepers and grocers should cut the list out and keep it for reference:

Baking Powder Containing Alum.
DAVIS' O. K. Contains Alum
R. B. Davis & Co., New York.
Crown Contains Alum
J. P. Dieter Co., Chicago.
Kenton Contains Alum
Potter-Parlin Co., Cincinnati.
Calumet Contains Alum
Calumet Baking Powder Co., Chicago.
Delicatessen Contains Alum
Delicatessen Baking Powder Co., New York.
I. C. Contains Alum
Jaques Mfg. Co., Chicago.

The housekeeper should bear in mind that alum makes a cheap baking powder. It costs but two cents a pound while cream of tartar costs thirty. The quality of the powder is therefore usually indicated by the price.

Looking For Lost Gold.

It is stated that yet another expedition is being arranged to recover the treasure lost when the ship General Grant foundered off the Auckland islands more than 30 years ago. The General Grant, with Ballarat miners on board, was on her way from Melbourne to London in 1866, when she was becalmed off the Auckland islands. Driven on to the shore by a heavy swell, the vessel was forced into a cave, where she sank, and out of 80 persons on board but a few were saved. It is known that there was a large quantity of gold on the General Grant, and many unsuccessful attempts have been made to recover it.

KELLY WAS VERY MAD

Says His Wife Was Hit With a Stone

WHILE PLAYING THE PIANO

He Calls on the Mayor and Wants Redress at Once—Landis Went to Jail, Elmer Clendenning Paid a Fine—Other Police Cases.

A few days ago John Kelly, of Avondale street, appeared at the office of the mayor and told a heartrending tale of how Mrs. Elizabeth Reese had thrown a stone through his window and hit his wife, who was playing the piano. He was exceedingly wrothy and stated that the stone had struck his wife on the head. He swore out a complaint and Officer White went after Mrs. Reese, who appeared in court and stated that she had thrown a stone at some chickens and the stone might have hit Kelly's house, but if it did it was unintentional on her part. As she is a lady in every respect the mayor believed her story to be true and told her to go home and he would see if he could not straighten affairs with Kelly, believing that this was the best way to dispose of the case.

The mayor says he sent for Kelly and the next night he appeared, but was very unreasonable. He wouldn't settle anything, and stormed around the mayor's office at a rapid rate until the mayor grew very tired. His entire desire seemed to be to humiliate Mrs. Reese, and he was told to go home, and the case is at an end for the time being at least.

THE LAST CHAPTER

Of the Landis Case, and the Boy Went to Lisbon This Morning.

Mrs. J. E. Bowers, of Wheeling, arrived in the city last evening, and identified the goods that were found in the possession of James Landis. The boy was taken to Lisbon this morning by Officer White.

Robert Buchheit was arrested Thursday night by Officer White. The boy was disorderly at the Grand Opera House, and incidentally was trying to get into the gallery through a window. He got $6.60, which he paid.

Elmer Clendenning, who was arrested yesterday by Officer Whan, was fined $7.60. He paid up and was released.

The jail is empty, the last man to get out being Thomas Lee, who succeeded in raising money to pay his fine last evening.

There has been no action taken in the case of Mary Starkey, who was arrested by Officer Grim upon a charge of taking a gold watch and chain from Frank Gray. The parents of the child will be consulted in the matter.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

Topic for the Week Beginning Oct. 22.—Comment by Rev. S. H. Doyle.

Topic.—An old time missionary.—Jonah iii, 1-10. (A missionary meeting.)

Jonah was the son of Amittai and a native of Gath-hepher. He prophesied in the reign of Jeroboam II. God sent him on a special mission to Nineveh. Jonah disliked the mission and tried to escape to Tarshish, but God, by His providence, brought him to a realization of his mistake. He commanded him a second time to go on the mission to Nineveh, and that time he obeyed. The story of his going is found in the topical reference.

Jonah preaching in Nineveh was a typical foreign missionary.

1. Jonah was sent from God. The Lord said unto him, "Arise, go to Nineveh, that great city, and preach unto it." Missionaries must be sent of God. When Paul says in Rom. x, 15, "How shall they preach except they be sent?" he refers not to man sending forth missionaries, but to God's sending forth missionaries. One who aspires to mission work should feel called of God to the work, and all who are interested in missions should earnestly pray to God to send forth laborers into His vineyards.

2. Jonah had a message from God and proclaimed it to the people. The Lord said, "Preach unto it the preaching that I bid thee." And Jonah delivered the message of God. Fearlessly, earnestly, he announced to the people the threatened destruction of the city, crying upon the streets, "Yet 40 days and Nineveh shall be overthrown." The missionary, whether at home or abroad, must get his message from God, and boldly must he proclaim the truth, and the whole truth, not only holding out overtures of mercy to all who will believe and repent, but warning men of their sure destruction if they refuse to repent and to accept the mercy of God.

3. God blessed his messenger and his message faithfully delivered, and success crowned his efforts. The people of Nineveh believed God, repented of their sins, and God staid off the threatened destruction of the city. But Jonah, for political reasons, was displeased at his own success, an anomaly in this respect. God will still bless the faithful efforts of His servants to win the world for Him. The task seems tremendously difficult, the work impossible of completion, and yet nothing is impossible with God. With one missionary God could bring the great, wicked Nineveh to its knees, and God is just as powerful and just as willing to bless His word today as in the days of Jonah.

Jonah's fidelity and success should encourage all who are interested in mission work. It shows that it is not impossible to win the world for God in Jesus Christ.

Bible Readings.—Ex. iii, 1-10; Isa. vi, 1-10; Jer. 1, 1-10; Math. ix, 35-38; xxviii, 18-20; Mark iii, 14-19; Luke x, 1-12; John i, 38-51; iv, 25-30; Acts vi, 1-7; viii, 26-40; xiii, 1-8; xvi, 8-12; Rom. x, 14, 15.

The Children in Church.

"Here am I and the children thou hast given me." That is well. That is as it should be—the children at church and in the family pew. They understand more than you suppose, and they are solemnly impressed by the occasion, even if they cannot understand the sermon. "But they will get so tired going to school and then to Sunday school."

Not so very tired as you suppose. They rise up and change posture during singing. The service is only about an hour and a quarter long. Then comes a recess to go into Sunday school, then only about an hour there, and no such hard study as in school. Really, do you see? Any half day at school is more severe than a whole service at church, including the Sunday school. Besides, if they cannot attend both, the Sunday school can be omitted. Our very best Sunday school workers will tell you that the church is worth more to the children than the school. If he can have but the one, give him the church. But do not be whimsical. He can have both. It will not hurt him. Bring the children.—Central Church.

Fearless Speech.

It is pleasant to say smooth things in this easy going, time serving age, but it may not be the wisest. A tendency to point out the good things in the characters and lives of wicked men and worldly Christians and pass over their sins and defects is one cause of the failure of the church to keep its hold on the masses. The Bible hides no sin or fault of the servants of God. It is admired because of its candor and fidelity to the truth. Those ministers of the gospel and religious teachers who talk out straight to their people, hewing to the line, speaking the truth in love, have the largest hearing and the most vigorous membership. God pity a ministry that cries "Peace, peace!" when there is no peace. A loving, fearless, direct appeal to sinful men, laying open their sins and showing them a better way, is the kind of preaching and teaching the times demand.—Religious Telescope.

MODUS VIVENDI IN FORCE.

Note of Great Britain Accepting Alaskan Agreement Delivered in Washington.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—Mr. Tower, the British charge here, called at the state department and handed to Secretary Hay a note formally accepting for his government the proposition for the temporary adjustment of the Alaskan boundary line proposed by Secretary Hay in his note. With that act the long expected modus vivendi relative to the vexed boundary question went into effect.

The state department is confident that it has conserved every American interest in the arrangement without unjustly treating Canada. The division line on the west pass, by which the Dalton trail is reached, is placed 22½ miles above Pyramid harbor, which is regarded under the treaty as tidewater mark, so the Canadians are not allowed to reach any point on the Lynn canal.

Moreover there is no permission given for a free port or even for the free transfer across American territory of Canadian goods except of miners' belongings. Those matters may figure later on when it comes to a permanent boundary line, but they are not touched upon in the modus.

NATIONAL W. C. T. U. MET.

Large Attendance of Delegates From Throughout the Country at Seattle, Wash.

SEATTLE, Wash., Oct. 21.—The national convention of the W. C. T. U. met here. For days trainloads of delegates from all parts of the country have been arriving and when the convention was called to order there was a large attendance.

The reports of the president, treasurer and corresponding secretary were heard.

PRAYER FOR THEIR CHURCH.

Presbyterians Set Aside a Half Hour Today at Synod at Erie, Pa.

ERIE, Pa., Oct. 21.—At the meeting of the Presbyterian synod the reading of the narrative created a profound impression, and the last half hour of today's session was set aside for communion among members and prayer for the spiritual welfare of the church.

Rev. John Fox, D. D., of New York, one of the secretaries of the American Bible society, addressed the session. He said it was most important this society should not be neglected; that during the past year they had translated the Bible into 409 different languages.

Dr. Agnew, chairman of board of relief fund, stated the board was organized 50 years ago with 43 families on its books; in ten years it increased to 137 ministers and families; now has 925 ministers and families; that last year they expended in supporting these $193,000, $300 annually per family being the highest pension paid.

On motion a special committee was appointed in the synod to serve in the interests of the American Bible society to see that its merits were properly brought before the people.

Last night Rev. Joseph L. Hunter, chaplain of the Fighting Tenth, addressed the meeting on missionary work in the Philippines.

TROUBLE BREWING IN SAMOA.

Three Consuls Left to Govern Unable to Agree.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 21.—The steamer Moana arrived from Australian ports via Apia, Samoa and Honolulu. The correspondent of The Associated Press at Samoa sent news of a startling character. He said under date of Oct. 6:

"The aspect of affairs in Samoa is indeed far from reassuring. There is trouble brewing, and it will come soon if the three powers do not come to aid the government and the distracted officials. The three consuls who were left here as a provisional government by the commissioners are finding their position by no means a bed of roses. It is a matter of report that the feeling between the members of the provisional government is strained."

British Squadron Ordered.

LONDON, Oct. 21.—The British channel squadron was ordered to proceed to Gibraltar next Tuesday.

A REBEL DELEGATION.

One Coming to Washington to Present Filipino Cause—Fighting by American Forces.

MANILA, Oct. 21.—The Democracia reported that the jantes in the Orient and in Europe intended to send a delegation to Washington to present the Filipino cause.

Regidor will probably be the president of the delegation and Agoncillo and Apacible will be among its members.

Three insurgent officers entered Angeles and applied to General MacArthur for permission for a Filipino commission, headed by a Filipino major general, to visit General Otis in order to discuss peace terms and order for the delivery of American prisoners, as well as to consider methods for the release of the Spanish prisoners.

The request was referred to General Otis. The insurgent officers are expected to return to receive his answer.

Captain MacRae, with a battalion of the Third infantry, and Captain Chynoweth, with a battalion of the Seventeenth infantry, marched to the town of Jose Malinas for the purpose of dispersing a band of 300 insurgents, under Juan Dicarot, who had recently been annoying our outposts and travelers along the road from Santa Ana to Arayat. The insurgents fled in the direction of Magalang.

The country between Angeles and Arayat was reported clear.

General Young's advance guard of General Lawton's column left Cabiao and entered San Isidro.

The American loss was one killed and three wounded. The heaviest resistance met with was at San Fernando, where the enemy destroyed a bridge.

General Pio del Pilar arrived from San Miguel and personally commanded the Filipinos. He and the bulk of the enemy retreated up the river. One Spaniard and 15 insurgents were captured. The loss of the enemy was not known. The townspeople appeared to be friendly.

SEA COAST DEFENSES.

Wilson Asks For Large Sums For United States, Porto Rico and Havana. Rivers and Harbors.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—The annual report of the chief of engineers of the army, Brigadier General John M. Wilson, submits estimates for river and harbor works already authorized by congress but not provided for by continuing contracts, amounting to $25,906,821. In addition he asks for $15,582,626 to carry on works already contracted for.

The report shows that the existing approved projects for seacoast defenses contemplate the emplacement of about 500 heavy guns of 8, 10, 12 and 16-inch caliber, of about 800 rapid-fire guns and of about 1,000 mortars, at an estimated approximate cost for the engineering work of $55,000,000.

An estimate of $1,500,000 is submitted for continuing the work of construction of these batteries and for the defense of Porto Rico. The sum of $5,663,000 was allotted by the president out of the national defense fund in aid for the engineering department.

Under the head of fortifications, General Wilson says that in addition to the 30 localities in the United States for which projects for permanent seacoast batteries have been adopted, the defense of several other localities is now under consideration. Considerable study has been given to the subject of the defense of our insular possessions, resulting in complete projects for San Juan and preliminary projects for Honolulu and Pearl harbor, so that the construction of batteries for these places can begin as soon as congress appropriates the funds.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

Topic For the Week Beginning Oct. 22.—Comment by Rev. S. H. Doyle.

Topic.—An old time missionary.—Jonah iii, 1-10. (A missionary meeting.)

Jonah was the son of Amittai and a native of Gath-hepher. He prophesied in the reign of Jeroboam II. God sent him on a special mission to Nineveh. Jonah disliked the mission and tried to escape to Tarshish, but God, by His providence, brought him to a realization of his mistake. He commanded him a second time to go on the mission to Nineveh, and that time he obeyed. The story of his going is found in the topical reference.

Jonah preaching in Nineveh was a typical foreign missionary.

1. Jonah was sent from God. The Lord said unto him, "Arise, go to Nineveh, that great city, and preach unto it." Missionaries must be sent of God. When Paul says in Rom. x, 15, "How shall they preach except they be sent?" he refers not to man sending forth missionaries, but to God's sending forth missionaries. One who aspires to mission work should feel called of God to the work, and all who are interested in missions should earnestly pray to God to send forth laborers into His vineyards.

2. Jonah had a message from God and proclaimed it to the people. The Lord said, "Preach unto it the preaching that I bid thee." And Jonah delivered the message of God. Fearlessly, earnestly, he announced to the people the threatened destruction of the city, crying upon the streets, "Yet 40 days and Nineveh shall be overthrown." The missionary, whether at home or abroad, must get his message from God, and boldly must he proclaim the truth, and the whole truth, not only holding out overtures of mercy to all who will believe and repent, but warning men of their sure destruction if they refuse to repent and to accept the mercy of God.

3. God blessed his messenger and his message faithfully delivered, and success crowned his efforts. The people of Nineveh believed God, repented of their sins, and God staid off the threatened destruction of the city. But Jonah, for political reasons, was displeased at his own success, an anomaly in this respect. God will still bless the faithful efforts of His servants to win the world for Him. The task seems tremendously difficult, the work impossible of completion, and yet nothing is impossible with God. With one missionary God could bring the great, wicked Nineveh to its knees, and God is just as powerful and just as willing to bless His word today as in the days of Jonah.

Jonah's fidelity and success should encourage all who are interested in mission work. It shows that it is not impossible to win the world for God in Jesus Christ.

Bible Readings.—Ex. iii, 1-10; Isa. vi, 1-10; lvi, 7; Nah. i, 15; Math. ix, 35-38; xxviii, 18-20; Mark iii, 14-19; Luke x, 1-12; John i, 38-51; iv, 25-30; Acts vi, 1-7; viii, 26-40; xiii, 1-3; xvi, 8-12; Rom. x, 14, 15.

The Children in Church.

"Here am I and the children thou hast given me." That is well. That is as it should be—the children at church and in the family pew. They understand more than you suppose, and they are solemnly impressed by the occasion, even if they cannot understand the sermon. "But they will get so tired going to school and then to Sunday school." Not so very tired as you suppose. They rise up and change posture during singing. The service is only about an hour and a quarter long. Then comes a recess to go into Sunday school, then only about an hour there, and no such hard study as in school. Really, do you see? Any half day at school is more severe than a whole service at church, including the Sunday school. Besides, if they cannot attend both, the Sunday school can be omitted. Our very best Sunday school workers will tell you that the church is worth more to the children than the school. If he can have but the one, give him the church. But do not be whimsical. He can have both. It will not hurt him. Bring the children.—Central Church.

Fearless Speech.

It is pleasant to say smooth things in this easy going, time serving age, but it may not be the wisest. A tendency to point out the good things in the characters and lives of wicked men and worldly Christians and pass over their sins and defects is one cause of the failure of the church to keep its hold on the masses. The Bible hides no sin or fault of the servants of God. It is admired because of its candor and fidelity to the truth. Those ministers of the gospel and religious teachers who talk out straight to their people, hewing to the line, speaking the truth in love, have the largest hearing and the most vigorous membership. God pity a ministry that cries "Peace, peace!" when there is no peace. A loving, fearless, direct appeal to sinful men, laying open their sins and showing them a better way, is the kind of preaching and teaching the times demand.—Religious Telescope.

MODUS VIVENDI IN FORCE.

Note of Great Britain Accepting Alaskan Agreement Delivered in Washington.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—Mr. Tower, the British charge here, called at the state department and handed to Secretary Hay a note formally accepting for his government the proposition for the temporary adjustment of the Alaskan boundary line proposed by Secretary Hay in his note. With that act the long expected modus vivendi relative to the vexed boundary question went into effect.

The state department is confident that it has conserved every American interest in the arrangement without unjustly treating Canada. The divisional line on the west pass, by which the Dalton trail is reached, is placed 22½ miles above Pyramid harbor, which is regarded under the treaty as tidewater mark, so the Canadians are not allowed to reach any point on the Lynn canal.

Moreover there is no permission given for a free port or even for the free transfer across American territory of Canadian goods except of miners' belongings. Those matters may figure later on when it comes to a permanent boundary line, but they are not touched upon in the modus.

NATIONAL W. C. T. U. MET.

Large Attendance of Delegates From Throughout the Country at Seattle, Wash.

SEATTLE, Wash., Oct. 21.—The national convention of the W. C. T. U. met here. For days trainloads of delegates from all parts of the country have been arriving and when the convention was called to order there was a large attendance.

The reports of the president, treasurer and corresponding secretary were heard.

PRAYER FOR THEIR CHURCH.

Presbyterians Set Aside a Half Hour Today at Synod at Erie, Pa.

ERIE, Pa., Oct. 21.—At the meeting of the Presbyterian synod the reading of the narrative created a profound impression, and the last half hour of today's session was set aside for communion among members and prayer for the spiritual welfare of the church.

Rev. John Fox, D. D., of New York, one of the secretaries of the American Bible society, addressed the session. He said it was most important this society should not be neglected; that during the past year they had translated the Bible into 400 different languages.

Dr. Agnew, chairman of board of relief fund, stated the board was organized 50 years ago with 43 families on its books; in ten years it increased to 137 ministers and families; now has 925 ministers and families; that last year they expended in supporting these $193,000, $300 annually per family being the highest pension paid.

On motion a special committee was appointed in the synod to serve in the interests of the American Bible society to see that its merits were properly brought before the people.

Last night Rev. Joseph L. Hunter, chaplain of the Fighting Tenth, addressed the meeting on missionary work in the Philippines.

TROUBLE BREWING IN SAMOA.

Three Consuls Left to Govern Unable to Agree.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 21.—The steamer Moana arrived from Australian ports via Apia, Samoa and Honolulu. The correspondent of The Associated Press at Samoa sent news of a startling character. He said under date of Oct. 6:

"The aspect of affairs in Samoa is indeed far from reassuring. There is trouble brewing, and it will come soon if the three powers do not come to aid the government and the distracted officials. The three consuls who were left here as a provisional government by the commissioners are finding their position by no means a bed of roses. It is a matter of report that the feeling between the members of the provisional government is strained."

British Squadron Ordered.

LONDON, Oct. 21.—The British channel squadron was ordered to proceed to Gibraltar next Tuesday.

A REBEL DELEGATION.

One Coming to Washington to Present Filipino Cause—Fighting by American Forces.

MANILA, Oct. 21.—The Democracia reported that the jantes in the Orient and in Europe intended to send a delegation to Washington to present the Filipino cause.

Rogador will probably be the president of the delegation and Agoncillo and Apacible will be among its members.

Three insurgent officers entered Angeles and applied to General MacArthur for permission for a Filipino commission, headed by a Filipino major general, to visit General Otis in order to discuss peace terms and order for the delivery of American prisoners, as well as to consider methods for the release of the Spanish prisoners.

The request was referred to General Otis. The insurgent officers are expected to return to receive his answer.

Captain MacRae, with a battalion of the Third infantry, and Captain Chynoweth, with a battalion of the Seventeenth infantry, marched to the town of Jose Maninas for the purpose of dispersing a band of 300 insurgents, under Juan Dicarot, who had recently been annoying our outposts and travelers along the road from Santa Ana to Arayat. The insurgents fled in the direction of Magalang.

The country between Angeles and Arayat was reported clear.

General Young's advance guard of General Lawton's column left Cabiao and entered San Isidro.

The American loss was one killed and three wounded. The heaviest resistance met with was at San Fernando, where the enemy destroyed a bridge.

General Pio del Pilar arrived from San Miguel and personally commanded the Filipinos. He and the bulk of the enemy retreated up the river. One Spaniard and 15 insurgents were captured. The loss of the enemy was not known. The townspeople appeared to be friendly.

SEA COAST DEFENSES.

Wilson Asks For Large Sums For United States, Porto Rico and Havana. Rivers and Harbors.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—The annual report of the chief of engineers of the army, Brigadier General John M. Wilson, submits estimates for river and harbor works already authorized by congress but not provided for by continuing contracts, amounting to $26,906,821. In addition he asks for $15,582,626 to carry on works already contracted for.

The report shows that the existing approved projects for seacoast defenses contemplate the emplacement of about 500 heavy guns of 8, 10, 12 and 16-inch caliber, of about 800 rapidfire guns and of about 1,000 mortars, at an estimated approximate cost for the engineering work of $55,000,000.

An estimate of $1,500,000 is submitted for continuing the work of construction of these batteries and for the defense of Porto Rico. The sum of $5,663,000 was allotted by the president out of the national defense fund in aid for the engineering department.

Under the head of fortifications, General Wilson says that in addition to the 30 localities in the United States for which projects for permanent seacoast batteries have been adopted, the defense of several other localities is now under consideration. Considerable study has been given to the subject of the defense of our insular possessions, resulting in complete projects for San Juan and preliminary projects for Honolulu and Pearl harbor, so that the construction of batteries for these places can begin as soon as congress appropriates the funds.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

Topic For the Week Beginning Oct. 22.—Comment by Rev. S. H. Doyle.

Topic.—An old time missionary.—Jonah iii, 1-10. (A missionary meeting.)

Jonah was the son of Amittai and a native of Gath-hepher. He prophesied in the reign of Jeroboam II. God sent him on a special mission to Nineveh. Jonah disliked the mission and tried to escape to Tarshish, but God, by His providence, brought him to a realization of his mistake. He commanded him a second time to go on the mission to Nineveh, and that time he obeyed. The story of his going is found in the topical reference.

Jonah preaching in Nineveh was a typical foreign missionary.

1. Jonah was sent from God. The Lord said unto him, "Arise, go to Nineveh, that great city, and preach unto it." Missionaries must be sent of God. When Paul says in Rom. x, 15, "How shall they preach except they be sent?" he refers not to man sending forth missionaries, but to God's sending forth missionaries. One who aspires to mission work should feel called of God to the work, and all who are interested in missions should earnestly pray to God to send forth laborers into His vineyards.

2. Jonah had a message from God and proclaimed it to the people. The Lord said, "Preach unto it the preaching that I bid thee." And Jonah delivered the message of God. Fearlessly, earnestly, he announced to the people the threatened destruction of the city, crying upon the streets, "Yet 40 days and Nineveh shall be overthrown." The missionary, whether at home or abroad, must get his message from God, and boldly must he proclaim the truth, and the whole truth, not only holding out overtures of mercy to all who will believe and repent, but warning men of their sure destruction if they refuse to repent and to accept the mercy of God.

3. God blessed his messenger and his message faithfully delivered, and success crowned his efforts. The people of Nineveh believed God, repented of their sins, and God staid off the threatened destruction of the city. But Jonah, for political reasons, was displeased at his own success, an anomaly in this respect. God will still bless the faithful efforts of His servants to win the world for Him. The task seems tremendously difficult, the work impossible of completion, and yet nothing is impossible with God. With one missionary God could bring the great, wicked Nineveh to its knees, and God is just as powerful and just as willing to bless His word today as in the days of Jonah.

Jonah's fidelity and success should encourage all who are interested in mission work. It shows that it is not impossible to win the world for God in Jesus Christ.

Bible Readings.—Ex. iii, 1-10; Isa. vi, 1-10; Jer. 1, 1-10; Math. ix, 35-38; xxviii, 18-20; Mark iii, 14-19; Luke x, 1-12; John i, 38-51; iv, 25-30; Acts vi, 1-7; viii, 26-40; xiii, 1-3; xvi, 8-12; Rom. x, 14, 15.

The Children in Church.

"Here am I and the children thou hast given me." That is well. That is as it should be—the children at church and in the family pew. They understand more than you suppose, and they are solemnly impressed by the occasion, even if they cannot understand the sermon. "But they will get so tired going to school and then to Sunday school." Not so very tired as you suppose. They rise up and change posture during singing. The service is only about an hour and a quarter long. Then comes a recess to go into Sunday school, then only about an hour there, and no such hard study as in school. Really, do you see? Any half day at school is more severe than a whole service at church, including the Sunday school. Besides, if they cannot attend both, the Sunday school can be omitted. Our very best Sunday school workers will tell you that the church is worth more to the children than the school. If he can have but the one, give him the church. But do not be whimsical. He can have both. It will not hurt him. Bring the children.—Central Church.

Fearless Speech.

It is pleasant to say smooth things in this easy going, time serving age, but it may not be the wisest. A tendency to point out the good things in the characters and lives of wicked men and worldly Christians and pass over their sins and defects is one cause of the failure of the church to keep its hold on the masses. The Bible hides no sin or fault of the servants of God. It is admired because of its candor and fidelity to the truth. Those ministers of the gospel and religious teachers who talk out straight to their people, hewing to the line, speaking the truth in love, have the largest hearing and the most vigorous membership. God pity a ministry that cries "Peace, peace!" when there is no peace. A loving, fearless, direct appeal to sinful men, laying open their sins and showing them a better way, is the kind of preaching and teaching the times demand.—Religious Telescope.

MODUS VIVENDI IN FORCE.

Note of Great Britain Accepting Alaskan Agreement Delivered in Washington.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—Mr. Tower, the British charge here, called at the state department and handed to Secretary Hay a note formally accepting for his government the proposition for the temporary adjustment of the Alaskan boundary line proposed by Secretary Hay in his note. With that act the long expected modus vivendi relative to the vexed boundary question went into effect.

The state department is confident that it has conserved every American interest in the arrangement without unjustly treating Canada. The divisional line on the west pass, by which the Dalton trail is reached, is placed 22½ miles above Pyramid harbor, which is regarded under the treaty as tidewater mark, so the Canadians are not allowed to reach any point on the Lynn canal.

Moreover there is no permission given for a free port or even for the free transfer across American territory of Canadian goods except of miners' belongings. Those matters may figure later on when it comes to a permanent boundary line, but they are not touched upon in the modus.

SEATTLE, Wash., Oct. 21.—The national convention of the W. C. T. U. met here. For days trainloads of delegates from all parts of the country have been arriving and when the convention was called to order there was a large attendance.

The reports of the president, treasurer and corresponding secretary were heard.

PRAYER FOR THEIR CHURCH.

Presbyterians Set Aside a Half Hour Today at Synod at Erie, Pa.

ERIE, Pa., Oct. 21.—At the meeting of the Presbyterian synod the reading of the narrative created a profound impression, and the last half hour of today's session was set aside for communion among members and prayer for the spiritual welfare of the church.

Rev. John Fox, D. D., of New York, one of the secretaries of the American Bible society, addressed the session. He said it was most important this society should not be neglected; that during the past year they had translated the Bible into 400 different languages.

Dr. Agnew, chairman of board of relief fund, stated the board was organized 50 years ago with 43 families on its books; in ten years it increased to 137 ministers and families; now has 925 ministers and families; that last year they expended in supporting these $193,000, $300 annually per family being the highest pension paid.

On motion a special committee was appointed in the synod to serve in the interests of the American Bible society to see that its merits were properly brought before the people.

Last night Rev. Joseph L. Hunter, chaplain of the Fighting Tenth, addressed the meeting on missionary work in the Philippines.

TROUBLE BREWING IN SAMOA.

Three Consuls Left to Govern Unable to Agree.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 21.—The steamer Moana arrived from Australian ports via Apia, Samoa and Honolulu. The correspondent of The Associated Press at Samoa sent news of a startling character. He said under date of Oct. 6: "The aspect of affairs in Samoa is indeed far from reassuring. There is trouble brewing, and it will come soon if the three powers do not come to aid the government and the distracted officials. The three consuls who were left here as a provisional government by the commissioners are finding their position by no means a bed of roses. It is a matter of report that the feeling between the members of the provisional government is strained."

British Squadron Ordered.

LONDON, Oct. 21.—The British channel squadron was ordered to proceed to Gibraltar next Tuesday.

A REBEL DELEGATION.

One Coming to Washington to Present Filipino Cause—Fighting by American Forces.

MANILA, Oct. 21.—The Democracia reported that the juntas in the Orient and in Europe intended to send a delegation to Washington to present the Filipino cause.

Regidor will probably be the president of the delegation and Agoncillo and Apacible will be among its members.

Three insurgent officers entered Angeles and applied to General MacArthur for permission for a Filipino commission, headed by a Filipino major general, to visit General Otis in order to discuss peace terms and order for the delivery of American prisoners, as well as to consider methods for the release of the Spanish prisoners.

The request was referred to General Otis. The insurgent officers are expected to return to receive his answer.

Captain MacKae, with a battalion of the Third infantry, and Captain Chynoweth, with a battalion of the Seventeenth infantry, marched to the town of Jose Matinas for the purpose of dispersing a band of 300 insurgents, under Juan Dicarot, who had recently been annoying our outposts and travelers along the road from Santa Ana to Arayat. The insurgents fled in the direction of Magalang.

The country between Angeles and Arayat was reported clear.

General Young's advance guard of General Lawton's column left Cabiao and entered San Isidro.

The American loss was one killed and three wounded. The heaviest resistance met with was at San Fernando, where the enemy destroyed a bridge.

General Pio del Pilar arrived from San Miguel and personally commanded the Filipinos. He and the bulk of the enemy retreated up the river. One Spaniard and 15 insurgents were captured. The loss of the enemy was not known. The townspeople appeared to be friendly.

SEA COAST DEFENSES.

Wilson Asks For Large Sums For United States, Porto Rico and Havana. Rivers and Harbors.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—The annual report of the chief of engineers of the army, Brigadier General John M. Wilson, submits estimates for river and harbor works already authorized by congress but not provided for by continuing contracts, amounting to $25,906,821. In addition he asks for $15,582,626 to carry on works already contracted for.

The report shows that the existing approved projects for seacoast defenses contemplate the emplacement of about 500 heavy guns of 8, 10, 12 and 16-inch caliber, of about 800 rapid-fire guns and of about 1,000 mortars, at an estimated approximate cost for the engineering work of $55,000,000.

An estimate of $4,500,000 is submitted for continuing the work of construction of these batteries and for the defense of Porto Rico. The sum of $5,663,000 was allotted by the president out of the national defense fund in all for the engineering department.

Under the head of fortifications, General Wilson says that in addition to the 30 localities in the United States for which projects for permanent seacoast batteries have been adopted, the defense of several other localities is now under consideration. Considerable study has been given to the subject of the defense of our insular possessions, resulting in complete projects for San Juan and preliminary projects for Honolulu and Pearl harbor, so that the construction of batteries for these places can begin as soon as congress appropriates the funds.

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

Topic For the Week Beginning Oct. 22. "An Old Time Missionary." Text. Jonah iii. 1-10.

"Let them turn every eye from their evil way. Who can tell if God will turn and repent, and turn away from His fierce anger, that we perish not?"

A populous and wicked city, an impassioned preacher and a righteous God are three factors which have more than once in history been found in close association. The relations of each to the other two may be varied with great changes in the results.

The unwavering note of all Hebrew prophecy from the earliest time has been the rulership of a righteous God in the affairs of men and the disastrous effects of wickedness. Clearer and yet more clear has it sounded from Noah to Moses, from Samuel to Malachi.

Not Israel alone, but all nations, all individuals, are bound by the eternal law of right. Whoever disobeys must suffer. The incorrigible must perish.

In the midst of the most luxurious and licentious city of the times there suddenly appears a strange man of rude speech and with a most startling cry. He offers no goods for sale, he seeks no friendships, but walks the street with solemn tread, robed as a prophet of the Hebrews, and cries continually, "Forty days and Nineveh shall be destroyed." To its profoundest depths the whole population is stirred. Whence he came no one knows. On what side the danger impends none can learn. He offers no explanation. He answers no inquiries. Is it from the clouds above, from the earth or the river? Who can tell? What armed enemy has arisen, and what force can he muster? The very uncertainty adds to the terror of the message. What is the escape? From the king to the slave, every one seeks to avert the disaster. Evil and luxury are laid aside. Acts of devotion and piety are practiced. Vice is replaced by virtue. All cry to God to avert the blow.

The people have found the clew of safety. God, who was angry with the people for their evil and determined to punish their wrongdoing, has reached the end He desires when they turn from their wickedness and violence and do right. The lesson is for all people and all ages. Whoever does the evil shall suffer for it. Whoever turns and seeks God and righteousness shall be prospered and blessed.

Constancy Better Than Curiosity.

Peter asked Jesus about John, "Lord, what shall this man do?" The reply gave no satisfaction to Peter's inquisitiveness. It was as if Jesus had said: "That is none of your business. Enough for each man to attend to his own affairs."

The need for every one is constancy in doing his own appointed work rather than curious prying into God's dealings with others.

Many complain of the hardness of their own lots, not so much because the load laid on them is excessive as because they see others whose burdens they fancy are lighter and tasks more agreeable. No amount of envy ever was able to make an interchange of lot with others. Fretting only increases the irritation. After all, suppose things are not all evened up; make the best of things as you find them.

Meditation.

This is one of the most difficult of Christian duties, but one of the most important. We can more easily read a dozen books than think properly and meditate upon the contents of one. But our inner thought is the matter of moment and not the recreation which came in reading. We may become intellectually dissipated and incapable of proper mental digestion unless we exercise great care. Read less and that of the best and think carefully of what is read is a good rule. Mental dyspepsia is one of the most prevalent complaints of the time. We devour much and digest little and lose power of enjoying the really good by pains of indigestion, loss of appetite and vitiated taste.

Not the number of chapters of Bible read, but the nourishment of soul derived, is the important question. Read some. Think much.

With Cords.

It is the strength of the weakest lines of the net that is the measure of its worth. If a few are old and worn, there is danger of a break and loss. Fix up the lines of your private devotions. Read the Bible, think about it, pray and worship God in quiet. Fix up the cords of family prayer, the lines of church attendance. How is the string to the purse adjusted? Fix that all right for God. How about personal testimony? Are you talking for Christ wherever you can? What are your habits? Any little vices, common things you think are not very bad, but a little bad? Got any secret corners with a little rubbish, a little darkness? Better fix all up. Mend the old nets, clear the dark corners of the soul. It is easier to live a whole souled Christian life than a half hearted one. It pays better too.

Not Worthy, but Willing.

Not worthy, O Lord, of Thy pardon,
Not fit to partake of Thy grace;
Not worthy, my Saviour, but longing
To live in the light of Thy face.
Not worthy to cling to the promise
Of cleansing and healing divine,
But eager to come at Thy bidding
And claim all Thou givest as mine.

It is not because I have asked Thee,
Though Thou hast encouraged my prayer,
But Thou, who dost love me, hast offered
My sins and my sorrows to bear.
God offered, and I have accepted
The cleansing, the joy and the light,
And into my life there is flowing
A wonderful beauty and might.

Still higher, as onward I journey,
My will rises toward Thine own,
For God has accepted a sinner,
And I have accepted a throne.
There never was soul more unworthy
To meet with compassion like Thine;
That I should be heir to a Kingdom,
And God, the eternal, be mine.

ANOTHER MONOPOLY FAKE.

Why President McKinley Could Not Grant Another Cable Franchise.

The pitiful plight of the Democrats in being deprived of all reason for receiving the support of the intelligent voter in this campaign is becoming every day more apparent in the easily confused "roorbacks" published in the Democratic papers.

The Democratic papers have accused President McKinley of favoring monopolies because Secretary Alger could not grant the Commercial Cable company the privilege of landing its cable in Cuba.

The facts are these: Senator Foraker, for the purpose of protecting the Cubans against the schemes of promoters and others, introduced an amendment to the last army appropriation bill, providing:

That no franchises or concessions of any kind whatever shall be granted by the United States, or by any military or other authority whatever in the island of Cuba during the occupation thereof by the United States.

The Commercial Cable company asked for a concession or a franchise which congress had expressly prohibited.

Further, the present cable between the United States and Cuba was established before the Spanish war, on a guarantee by Spain that for 20 years the company should have the exclusive right to maintain and operate a cable between Cuba and the United States.

This concession the United States was bound to regard, because paragraph 3 of article 8 of the treaty of peace between Spain and the United States provides that the relinquishment of Spanish authority in Cuba "can not impair in any respect the property or rights which by law belong to the peaceful possession of property of all kinds."

President McKinley was prohibited both by treaty, which, under the constitution, is the supreme law of the land, and by express act of congress from granting the commission sought by the Commercial Cable company. Yet because he did not violate the law the Democrats criticize him for protecting a monopoly which he is powerless to break.

Over Present Work.

Enthusiasm over present work, not over future accomplishments, means the largest practical results day by day in the Lord's service. Earnestness is not a quality for special performances, but for daily use. It covers life as it is and as it comes according to divine appointment. —Presbyterian.

A Light Attracting Others.

If I in my own person and daily walk quietly resist heaviness of custom, coldness of hope, timidity of faith, then without wishing, contriving or ever knowing it I am a light silently drawing as many as have vision and are fit to walk in the same path. —John Morley in "Essay on Emerson."

The Day of Settlement.

You can, of course, do as you please, but you will have to settle the matter with your God some day. —Lutheran.

The need for every one is constancy in doing his own appointed work rather than curious prying into God's dealings with others.

Many complain of the hardness of their own lots, not so much because the load laid on them is excessive as because they see others whose burdens they fancy are lighter and tasks more agreeable. No amount of envy ever was able to make an interchange of lot with others. Fretting only increases the irritation. After all, suppose things are not all evened up; make the best of things as you find them.

Meditation.

This is one of the most difficult of Christian duties, but one of the most important. We can more easily read a dozen books than think properly and meditate upon the contents of one. But our inner thought is the matter of moment and not the recreation which came in reading. We may become intellectually dissipated and incapable of proper mental digestion unless we exercise great care. Read less and that of the best and think carefully of what is read is a good rule. Mental dyspepsia is one of the most prevalent complaints of the time. We devour much and digest little and lose power of enjoying the really good by pains of indigestion, loss of appetite and vitiated taste.

Not the number of chapters of Bible read, but the nourishment of soul derived, is the important question. Read some. Think much.

With Cords.

It is the strength of the weakest lines of the net that is the measure of its worth. If a few are old and worn, there is danger of a break and loss. Fix up the lines of your private devotions. Read the Bible, think about it, pray and worship God in quiet. Fix up the cords of family prayer, the lines of church attendance. How is the string to the purse adjusted? Fix that all right for God. How about personal testimony? Are you talking for Christ wherever you can? What are your habits? Any little vices, common things you think are not very bad, but a little bad? Got any secret corners with a little rubbish, a little darkness? Better fix all up. Mend the old nets, clear the dark corners of the soul. It is easier to live a whole souled Christian life than a half hearted one. It pays better too.

Not Worthy, but Willing.

Not worthy, O Lord, of Thy pardon,
Not fit to partake of Thy grace;
Not worthy, my Saviour, but longing
To live in the light of Thy face.
Not worthy to cling to the promise
Of cleansing and healing divine,
But eager to come at Thy bidding
And claim all Thou givest as mine.

It is not because I have asked Thee,
Though Thou hast encouraged my prayer,
But Thou, who dost love me, hast offered
My sins and my sorrows to bear.
God offered, and I have accepted
The cleansing, the joy and the light,
And into my life there is flowing
A wonderful beauty and might.

Still higher, as onward I journey,
My will rises toward Thine own,
For God has accepted a sinner,
And I have accepted a throne.
There never was soul more unworthy
To meet with compassion like Thine;
That I should be heir to a kingdom,
And God, the eternal, be mine.

ANOTHER MONOPOLY FAKE.

Why President McKinley Could Not Grant Another Cable Franchise.

The pitiful plight of the Democrats in being deprived of all reason for receiving the support of the intelligent voter in this campaign is becoming every day more apparent in the easily confuted "roorbacks" published in the Democratic papers.

The Democratic papers have accused President McKinley of favoring monopolies because Secretary Alger could not grant the Commercial Cable company the privilege of landing its cable in Cuba.

The facts are these: Senator Foraker, for the purpose of protecting the Cubans against the schemes of promoters and others, introduced an amendment to the last army appropriation bill, providing:

That no franchises or concessions of any kind whatever shall be granted by the United States, or by any military or other authority whatever in the island of Cuba during the occupation thereof by the United States.

The Commercial Cable company asked for a concession or a franchise which congress had expressly prohibited.

Further, the present cable between the United States and Cuba was established before the Spanish war, on a guarantee by Spain that for 20 years the company should have the exclusive right to maintain and operate a cable between Cuba and the United States.

This concession the United States was bound to regard, because paragraph 3 of article 8 of the treaty of peace between Spain and the United States provides that the relinquishment of Spanish authority in Cuba "can not impair in any respect the property or rights which by law belong to the peaceful possession of property of all kinds."

President McKinley was prohibited both by treaty, which, under the constitution, is the supreme law of the land, and by express act of congress from granting the commission sought by the Commercial Cable company. Yet because he did not violate the law the Democrats criticize him for protecting a monopoly which he is powerless to break.

Over Present Work.

Enthusiasm over present work, not over future accomplishments, means the largest practical results day by day in the Lord's service. Earnestness is not a quality for special performances, but for daily use. It covers life as it is and as it comes according to divine appointment. —Presbyterian.

A Light Attracting Others.

If I in my own person and daily walk quietly resist heaviness of custom, coldness of hope, timidity of faith, then without wishing, contriving or ever knowing it I am a light silently drawing as many as have vision and are fit to walk in the same path. —John Morley in "Essay on Emerson."

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

Topic for the Week Beginning Oct. 22, "An Old Time Missionary." Text, Jonah iii. 1-10.

"Let them turn every eye from their evil way. Who can tell if God will turn and repent, and turn away from His fierce anger, that we perish not?"

A populous and wicked city, an impassioned preacher and a righteous God are three factors which have more than once in history been found in close association. The relations of each to the other two may be varied with great changes in the results.

The unwavering note of all Hebrew prophecy from the earliest time has been the rulership of a righteous God in the affairs of men and the disastrous effects of wickedness. Clearer and yet more clear has it sounded from Noah to Moses, from Samuel to Malachi.

Not Israel alone, but all nations, all individuals, are bound by the eternal law of right. Whoever disobeys must suffer. The incorrigible must perish.

In the midst of the most luxurious and licentious city of the times there suddenly appears a strange man of rude speech and with a most startling cry. He offers no goods for sale, he seeks no friendships, but walks the street with solemn tread, robed as a prophet of the Hebrews, and cries continually, "Forty days and Nineveh shall be destroyed." To its profoundest depths the whole population is stirred. Whence he came no one knows. On what side the danger impends none can learn. He offers no explanation. He answers no inquiries. Is it from the clouds above, from the earth or the river? Who can tell? What armed enemy has arisen, and what force can he muster? The very uncertainty adds to the terror of the message. What is the escape? From the king to the slave, every one seeks to avert the disaster. Evil and luxury are laid aside. Acts of devotion and piety are practiced. Vice is replaced by virtue. All cry to God to avert the blow.

The people have found the clew of safety. God, who was angry with the people for their evil and determined to punish their wrongdoing, has reached the end He desires when they turn from their wickedness and violence and do right. The lesson is for all people and all ages. Whoever does the evil shall suffer for it. Whoever turns and seeks God and righteousness shall be prospered and blessed.

Constancy Better Than Curiosity.

Peter asked Jesus about John, "Lord, what shall this man do?" The reply gave no satisfaction to Peter's inquisitiveness. It was as if Jesus had said: "That is none of your business. Enough for each man to attend to his own affairs."

The need for every one is constancy in doing his own appointed work rather than curious prying into God's dealings with others.

Many complain of the hardness of their own lots, not so much because the load laid on them is excessive as because they see others whose burdens they fancy are lighter and tasks more agreeable. No amount of envy ever was able to make an interchange of lot with others. Fretting only increases the irritation. R. M. Martin had his right hand badly injured by being clawed by an owl.

The river is stationary and the marks today registered the same as that of yesterday.

The East Liverpool social club have arranged for an opening of their rooms next Friday evening.

The quarantine was raised from the residence of Thomas Watkins, on College street, this morning.

The agent who will assume the management of the local freight office will arrive in the city Monday.

Hope Castle, No. 33, Knights of the Golden Eagle, will celebrate their ninth anniversary Tuesday evening.

Officer Mahony was in Vanport, yesterday, attending the funeral of an old friend who died Tuesday evening.

The mail sent from this place on the late train, last night, was very heavy. About 10 pouches were dispatched.

Next week four people will leave this place for the west. Two will go to Los Angeles while one will go to Denver.

J. J. McCormick, general agent of the river division of the Cleveland and Pittsburg road, spent last night in the city.

A hot box on the engine attached to the Pittsburg accommodation train caused it to lie at the passenger station 15 minutes this morning.

An escape pipe on the west wall of city hall is in a bad condition. The pipe is broken and a strong wind will cause it to fall. Improvements should be made at once.

It is probable the revival services at the Gardendale chapel will be continued next week. At the meeting last night there were eight conversions, making 32 for the five nights.

Mrs. M. Moore left this morning for Parkersburg, W. Va., where she will visit friends for several weeks. From there she will go to Little Hocking, Washington county, where she will look after a farm in which she is interested.

When the early accommodation train pulled into the station this morning Conductor Garren discovered a negro beating his way. Officer White was at the station and when he and the conductor went after the individual he had made good his escape. He got on the train at Wellsville.

Mrs. James Little, of Philadelphia, who has been the guest of Mrs. B. K. Little, left yesterday afternoon for Steubenville. She will attend the Cook-Hogen wedding next Tuesday and will then return to her home in Philadelphia accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Gallagher.

There is no decrease in the amount of ware being shipped from this place. Never in the history of the city were the rollers at the freight depot compelled to work as hard as they do at present. Yesterday in the neighborhood of 20 cars were loaded and sent out from the outbound platform, to say nothing of the car load freight sent out.

A two-foot strip of ground owned by Mrs. Kinney on Oblique street is blocking the work of laying a sewer. The city has purchased ground on either side of the small tract and when workmen commenced to dig there yesterday they were stopped. Engineer George is now investigating the matter and will make a report to council at the next meeting.

BUSINESS RECORDS.

Dun's Review Says It Is Growing In Most Lines Failures For the Week.

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade issued today said in part:

In most lines business continues to expand. Although in some there are signs that buying has been checked, either because prices have outrun the views of buyers or because recent purchases have been so heavy that nobody is left in need. Prices are still advancing in almost every line, supported by rising prices of materials, and works everywhere are still crowded to their utmost capacity, while at many points it is found hard to get enough competent hands. But the volume of business expressed in values rises much more than prices, showing a remarkable increase in quantities of goods exchanged.

The outbreak of war in South Africa has brought no such changes as many feared. In England the markets have treated it as an event already overhauled, and relations with this country were not appreciably affected.

Wheat has declined 1½ cents in spite of unfavorable crop reports, and western receipts do not keep up with the unprecedented movement of last year, having been but 23,454,400 bushels, against 30,592,494 bushels during the three weeks of October of last year. But Atlantic exports, flour included, have been in three weeks of October 10,679,216 bushels, against 9,686,226 bushels last year, and Pacific exports 1,539,188 bushels, against 2,298,312 bushels last year. Beyond doubt prices would rise far and fast with such a foreign demand, if official and other current reports of yield were fully credited. Corn exports add testimony as to foreign needs, having been in three weeks 10,924,406 bushels, against 7,002,039 last year.

Wool has enlisted a powerful speculative interest, and sales of 11,293,000 pounds for the week at the three chief markets represent about twice the consumption. But it is stated that manufacturers, exclusive of the American Woolen company, have been buying quite freely and while goods for men's wear, outside of worsteds, were not particularly active, there has been excellent business in dress goods.

Sales of 50,000 tons Bessemer pig and a reported demand for 100,000 tons billets in a bare market at Pittsburg have made quotations less intelligent than usual. Bessemer sales at $23 for next year, and $24.50 for this year, at Pittsburg, are reported, with billet sales, at $39 to $40, and sales of sheet bars at $36 per ton. The western market is strong, and the eastern not changed. While large orders for bars are refused at Pittsburg by the works, which are full for many months ahead, others just starting are seeking such orders at 2.1 cents, and the Chicago and Pittsburg markets are still full of orders for plates, although the works at Pittsburg have nearly caught up, and some of them are now taking only 2.75 cents against 2.90 cents last week.

Some works are also taking orders for sheets at $3.10, and in other directions there are signs that the enormous production begins to be felt. There is a possibility of check owing to shortage of cars at Connellsville, which restricts delivery of coke, the output for the week having been 190,298 tons, with more ovens in operation and prices unchanged.

Failures for the week have been 145 in the United States, against 221 last year, and 20 in Canada, against 24 last year.

Hope Castle, No. 33, Knights of the Golden Eagle, will celebrate their ninth anniversary Tuesday evening.

Officer Mahony was in Vanport, yesterday, attending the funeral of an old friend who died Tuesday evening.

The mail sent from this place on the late train, last night, was very heavy. About 10 pouches were dispatched.

Next week four people will leave this place for the west. Two will go to Los Angeles while one will go to Denver.

J. J. McCormick, general agent of the river division of the Cleveland and Pittsburg road, spent last night in the city.

A hot box on the engine attached to the Pittsburg accommodation train caused it to lie at the passenger station 15 minutes this morning.

An escape pipe on the west wall of city hall is in a bad condition. The pipe is broken and a strong wind will cause it to fall. Improvements should be made at once.

It is probable the revival services at the Gardendale chapel will be continued next week. At the meeting last night there were eight conversions, making 32 for the five nights.

Mrs. M. Moore left this morning for Parkersburg, W. Va., where she will visit friends for several weeks. From there she will go to Little Hocking, Washington county, where she will look after a farm in which she is interested.

When the early accommodation train pulled into the station this morning Conductor Garren discovered a negro beating his way. Officer White was at the station and when he and the conductor went after the individual he had made good his escape. He got on the train at Wellsville.

Mrs. James Little, of Philadelphia, who has been the guest of Mrs. B. K. Little, left yesterday afternoon for Steubenville. She will attend the Cook-Hogen wedding next Tuesday and will then return to her home in Philadelphia accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Gallagher.

There is no decrease in the amount of ware being shipped from this place. Never in the history of the city were the rollers at the freight depot compelled to work as hard as they do at present. Yesterday in the neighborhood of 20 cars were loaded and sent out from the outbound platform, to say nothing of the car load freight sent out.

A two-foot strip of ground owned by Mrs. Kinney on Oblique street is blocking the work of laying a sewer. The city has purchased ground on either side of the small tract and when workmen commenced to dig there yesterday they were stopped. Engineer George is now investigating the matter and will make a report to council at the next meeting.

BUSINESS REVERDS.

Dun's Review Says It Is Growing In Most Lines Failures For the Week.

New York, Oct. 21.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade issued today said in part:

In most lines business continues to expand. Although in some there are signs that buying has been checked, either because prices have outrun the views of buyers or because recent purchases have been so heavy that nobody is left in need. Prices are still advancing in almost every line, supported by rising prices of materials, and works everywhere are still crowded to their utmost capacity, while at many points it is found hard to get enough competent hands. But the volume of business expressed in values rises much more than prices, showing a remarkable increase in quantities of goods exchanged.

The outbreak of war in South Africa has brought no such changes as many feared. In England the markets have treated it as an event already overhounded, and relations with this country were not appreciably affected.

Wheat has declined 1½ cents in spite of unfavorable crop reports, and western receipts do not keep up with the unprecedented movement of last year, having been but 23,454,400 bushels, against 30,592,494 bushels during the three weeks of October of last year. But Atlantic exports, flour included, have been in three weeks of October 10,679,216 bushels, against 9,686,226 bushels last year, and Pacific exports 1,539,188 bushels, against 2,298,312 bushels last year. Beyond doubt prices would rise far and fast with such a foreign demand, if official and other current reports of yield were fully credited. Corn exports add testimony as to foreign needs, having been in three weeks 10,924,406 bushels, against 7,002,039 last year.

Wool has enlisted a powerful speculative interest, and sales of 11,293,000 pounds for the week at the three chief markets represent about twice the consumption. But it is stated that manufacturers, exclusive of the American Woolen company, have been buying quite freely and while goods for men's wear, outside of worsteds, were not particularly active, there has been excellent business in dress goods.

Sales of 50,000 tons Bessemer pig and a reported demand for 100,000 tons billets in a bare market at Pittsburg have made quotations less intelligent than usual. Bessemer sales at $23 for next year, and $24.50 for this year, at Pittsburg, are reported, with billet sales, at $39 to $40, and sales of sheet bars at $36 per ton. The western market is strong, and the eastern not changed. While large orders for bars are refused at Pittsburg by the works, which are full for many months ahead, others just starting are seeking such orders at 2.1 cents, and the Chicago and Pittsburg markets are still full of orders for plates, although the works at Pittsburg have nearly caught up, and some of them are now taking only 2.75 cents against 2.90 cents last week.

Some works are also taking orders for sheets at $3.10, and in other directions there are signs that the enormous production begins to be felt. There is a possibility of check owing to shortage of cars at Connellsville, which restricts delivery of coke, the output for the week having been 190,298 tons, with more ovens in operation and prices unchanged.

Failures for the week have been 145 in the United States, against 221 last year, and 20 in Canada, against 24 last year.

Attempt Made to Dynamite the Residence of His Representative.

CARACAS, Venezuela, Oct. 21.—President Andrade escaped to La Guayra.

An attempt was made to dynamite the residence of Senhor Matos, General Andrade's representative in the negotiations with the insurgent commander, General Cipriano Castro.

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—Judge Lacombe in the United States circuit court handed down a decision dismissing the writ of habeas corpus in the case of former Captain Oberlin M. Carter, who is under sentence of five years' imprisonment for conspiracy to defraud the government in contracts. The decision was given in a lengthy opinion, which upheld the findings of the courtmartial.

TWO CENTS

EUROPE ASKS BRITTON

The Reason For Her Immense Military Preparations.

BOER LOSS, 800; BRITISH; 250.

Blood Estimate of Casualties of the Bloody Battle Fought at Glencoe. Boers Driven From Almost Impregnable Position and Captured.

LONDON, Oct. 21.—It is reported that Great Britain's immense military preparations against two insignificant republics are viewed with considerable curiosity in some of the European capitals, notably Paris and St. Petersburg. Notes have been exchanged on the subject, and it is even hinted in unofficial quarters that inquiries will be addressed to the British government as to the contemplated absorption of the two republics by the British empire.

The Press association announced with an air of authority that the government's plan is to terminate the war in the speediest manner possible after the forts at Pretoria and Johannesburg have been razed and then to promulgate, by order of the queen in council, a new constitution for a group of five federal states—Cape Colony, the Transvaal, Natal, the Orange River Free State and Rhodesia—under the title of the Dominion of South Africa, the crown to nominate a governor general and the five states having power each to elect its own lieutenant governor and to have local legislatures with a dominion parliament to meet at Cape Town.

With some modifications, the scheme is based on lines similar to those of the Canadian government.

The absence of details regarding the British losses in the engagement at Glencoe camp causes the deepest anxiety, and the war office is besieged by relatives and friends of those making up the forces that took part in the fight. Among the callers was the Duke of Abercorn, who made anxious inquiries.

GLENCOE CAMP, Oct. 21.—After about eight hours of continuous heavy fighting, Talana hill was carried by the Dublin Fusiliers and the King's Rifles, under cover of a well served artillery fire by the Thirteenth and Sixty-ninth batteries. The Boers, who threatened the British rear, retired.

The fight was almost an exact counterpart of that of Majuba hill, except that the positions of the Boer and British forces were reversed.

General Symons was severely, but not dangerously, wounded. General Symons was shot through the thigh, but no bones were broken. He is cheerful.

A rough estimate places the British loss at 250 killed or wounded, and that of the Boers at 800.

The seizure of Dundee hill by the Boers was a surprise, for, although the pickets had been exchanging shots all night, it was not until a shell boomed over the town into the camp that their presence was discovered. Then the shells came fast.

The batteries from the camp took up positions to the south of the town and after about a quarter hour's magnificent firing silenced the guns on the hills.

Directly the Boer guns ceased firing, General Symons ordered the infantry to move on the position. The infantry charge was magnificent. The way the King's Royal Rifles and the Dublin Fusiliers stormed the position was one of the most splendid sights ever seen. The firing of the Boers was not so deadly as might have been expected from troops occupying such an excellent position, but the infantry lost heavily going up the hill.

The enemy's guns, so far as the correspondent could see, were all abandoned, for the Boers had no time to remove them. A stream of fugitives poured down the hillside into the valley, where the battle went on with no abatement.

General Symons was wounded early in the action, and the command then devolved on Major Yale.

The enemy, as they fled, were followed by the cavalry, mounted infantry and artillery. The direction taken was to the eastward. At the latest reports the cavalry had not returned.

Some say that four and some say five guns were captured. The Boer artillery firing was weak.

While this was going on, one battery of artillery, the Eighteenth hussars and the mounted infantry, with a part of the Leicester regiment, got on the enemy's flank, and as the Boers streamed wildly down the hills making for the main road, they found their retreat had been cut off, but they rallied for awhile and there was severe firing, with considerable loss on each side. Many of the enemy surrendered.

DURBAN, Oct. 21.—It was officially announced that the Boers retired from Hattingspruit.

LONDON, Oct. 21.—A report from Ladysmith said that the Boer advance on Hattingspruit was composed of about 9,000 men. The Fifteenth battery and the Leicester regiment went to meet them.

The war office has received the following official dispatch from Ladysmith filed yesterday afternoon:

"This from Glencoe: 'We were attacked this morning at daylight by a force roughly estimated at 4,000. They had placed four or five guns in position on a hill 5,400 yards east of our camp, and they fired plugged shells. Their artillery did no damage. Our infantry formed for attack, and we got our guns into position. After the position of the enemy had been shelled our infantry advanced to the attack, and after a hard fight, lasting until 1:30 p. m., an almost inaccessible position was taken, the enemy retiring eastward. All the Boer guns have been captured. We can see our soldiers at the top of the hill. Our cavalry and artillery are still out.'

"General Symons is severely wounded. Our losses are heavy. They will be telegraphed as soon as possible."

Advices from Pretoria announce that a special police of 400 non-British Outlanders has been organized, with the sanction of the Transvaal government to patrol the mining properties between Randfontein and Modderfontein, with a view of preventing willful damage.

It is not believed that the Transvaal government has any intention of damaging the mines, but danger is apprehended from the Boers on returning from the front after a possible defeat.

The mobilization is practically completed and it is said that more than 90 per cent of the reservists have rejoined the colors. This is considered eminently satisfactory.

The speed at which the army corps has been gotten together has excited the admiration of the German headquarters' staff, and they have sent a semi-official message of congratulation through the British military attaché in Berlin to the Boers.

Advices from Mafeking, by way of Kimberley, reiterate the story of a Boer repulse there with severe losses. The British had Corporal Walsh and Corporal Parland killed and 14 men wounded.

ALIWAAL NORTH, Cape Colony, Oct. 19.—(Delayed in transmission.)—The Boer force from Smithfield has moved to Bethulie, where 2,000 Boers are now concentrating. Their plan of campaign appears to be for the Rouxville contingent, crossing the Orange river ford, as they fear the north bridge is mined, to circumvent Aliwal North and to seize the railway. Simultaneously the Bethulie contingent, it appears, is to move across the border, seize the railway and proceed to Albert Junction, there to meet the Rouxville force. If this plan succeeds, the Boers expect the Dutch in Cape Colony to join them. The Rouxville force has artillery, including a Krupp gun.

SOUTHAMPTON, Oct. 21.—The transport Yorkshire, carrying the first troops of the special army corps for South Africa, cast off, the other transports following at regular intervals. The public were excluded from the docks during the embarkation, but immense throngs gathered outside, cheering and singing and bidding farewell to their friends as the trains passed in.

By Monday 17,000 men will have left for South Africa.

CAPE TOWN, Oct. 21.—A private message from Mafeking, undated, said: "Fight Monday. All right."

Messages from Kimberley, dated Oct. 17, say that the Boers still occupied their position at Shepfontein. They were lifting cattle and devastating everything.

Colonel Schneider Dead.

VIENNA, Oct. 21.—Colonel Schneider, the former Austrian military attaché at Paris whose name has been prominently connected with the alleged treason of former Captain Alfred Dreyfus of the French army, and who, it is generally understood, fought a duel about Oct. 13 with Captain Cuignet of the French army as a result of statements made by the captain at the Rennes court-martial, is dead.

Many Thousands Receive Relief.

SIMLA, Oct. 21.—The number of persons now receiving relief throughout India reaches 393,000.

BYRAN TO THE ENEMY

Hissing Opponents to His Findlay Meeting.

WOULDN'T ALLOW THEM REMOVED

Said He Could Stand Them a Half Hour If the People of Findlay Could Stand Them Always—Large Crowds at the Different Towns.

FINDLAY, O., Oct. 21.—Mr. Bryan made the last speech of his second day's tour in Ohio in this place. Findlay had the largest crowd and a torchlight procession. The first meeting of the evening was held in the ball park and the second in Marvin's Opera House. The audience in the opera house received Mr. Bryan by a division of sentiment, some cheering and a portion hissing. Mr. Bryan in the midst of the contending voices said: "I am glad there are Republicans here. [Applause.] This is first time I have met men who came to hiss rather than listen. I am glad to speak to even hissing Republicans, because that is the only argument you can use to answer our arguments. I want to draw a picture of Abraham Lincoln and I want to do it for the benefit of you Mark Hanna Republicans. In the days of Abraham Lincoln the man was placed before the dollar. Those were not the days of Mark Hanna Republicans. In those days you Republicans stood for self-government. In 1856 Abraham Lincoln praised the Declaration of Independence as the greatest instrument of modern times."

The hissing continuing, a voice said: "Never mind the hissing; it is only from boys," to which Mr. Bryan rejoined:

"But what of the father who sends a boy here who does not know more than that. [Laughter.] Let them hiss."

A boy cried: "Maybe you think we can't."

Quietly Mr. Bryan said: "The boy is mistaken. What we can do is Republican doctrine; what we ought to do is Democratic doctrine." [Applause.]

A gentleman in the audience: "Mr. Chairman, there is an officer here, we can have them removed."

Mr. Bryan: "Never mind the officer. I can stand it to be with these people a half hour if you can stand it to be with them always." [Applause.]

LIM O., Oct. 21.—As the Bryan-McLean special was entering this city the rear trucks of the tender jumped the track, but it applied causing no damage. An immense concourse greeted the train at the depot and the procession to the public square was the greatest of any thus far in Ohio. In his speech Mr. Bryan supported the Ohio state ticket because the Zanesville platform reaffirmed the Chicago platform and correctly represented the Democratic party on all the great questions that now attract the attention of the American people. He again discussed the income tax law, trusts and silver.

BELLEFONTAINE, O., Oct. 21.—At this place Mr. Bryan recalled the fact that when he passed through in 1896 the Republicans all wore yellow ribbons to signify that they favored the gold standard and asked what they had to say to the action of their president in sending a commission to Europe to get rid of the gold standard? "And you farmers had to pay $100,000 to meet the expenses of that commission," said Mr. Bryan. "A commission that cried: 'Help, help, or we sink!' How do you like the gold standard now?"

Mr. Bryan spoke to large crowds at Napoleon and Ottawa. At the latter place at one point he said:

"Now, my friends," said Mr. Bryan, "I will trade votes in 1900 for votes this fall. If you will give us a large vote this fall I will be satisfied." [A voice: "That means McLean."]

"Yes, sir; that means McLean and everybody else."

THE AMERICA'S CUP STAYS IN AMERICA.

British Challenger Shamrock Beaten in the Last and Deciding Race by Columbia.

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—Through wild and hoary seas, in a breeze that approached the dignity of a gale, the gallant sloop Columbia vanquished the British challenger Shamrock by 6 minutes and 18 seconds actual time and 6 minutes and 34 seconds corrected time, thus completing the series for the America's cup with a magnificent rough weather duel and a glorious Yankee victory.

The weather was the kind the Irish yachtsman had been wanting, but his boat failed to win. For the eleventh time the attempt of a foreigner to wrest from America the yachting supremacy of the world has failed.

To Sir Thomas Lipton, whose name is now added to the list of defeated aspirants for the honor of carrying the cup back across the Atlantic, failure was a crushing blow. His hope had been high. But, like the true sportsman that he is, the sting of defeat has left no bitterness and with undaunted courage he intimates that he may be back with a better boat to try again.

DEACONESS CELEBRATION. Bishop McCabe Presided at Exercises of the M. E. Woman's Home Missionary Society at Pittsburg.

PITTSBURG, Oct. 21.—At the third day's session of the Methodist Episcopal Women's Home Missionary society convention at Christ church, Center and Liberty avenues, the devotional exercises were conducted by Mrs. Margaret Alsbaugh of Anamosa, Ia. Mrs. W. P. Pope of Tecumseh, Mich., arose during this service and said that the day has been set apart by the Detroit and Michigan conferences as a day of fasting and prayer. She asked the prayers of the delegates for her friends in Michigan.

The convention then went into a committee of the whole on finance to consider finances and appropriations. Mrs. Delia Lathrop Williams, the national treasurer of the society, presided, and reminded the delegates that the appropriations made the day before were all larger than those of last year. She suggested that if the same liberal spirit was maintained it would be necessary to cut down many of the appropriations.

Different secretaries asked for appropriations for work in certain sections.

Mrs. Mary Fisk Park presented her report as secretary of the bureau for west central states. This bureau has supervision of the New Jersey Industrial home, Morristown, Tenn.; Kent Industrial home, Greensboro, N. C., and the Ritter Industrial home, Athens, Tenn. Mrs. Park spoke encouragingly of the work at the New Jersey and Kent homes, where many girls are being educated and fitted for after life. The report was adopted.

Mrs. E. W. Simpson of Troy, N. Y., secretary of the Indian bureau for New Mexico and Arizona, presented her report. The missions in charge of this bureau are at Jewett and Dulca, N. M., and are doing good work among the Indian children.

Miss Fricke, a Bohemian missionary worker in the coke regions, was introduced. She said there are 50,000 slaves there, and she spends her time making house to house visitations and teaching these people the Gospel in their own language.

Mrs. Anna Kent of East Orange, N. J., secretary of the Spanish bureau for New Mexico and Arizona, made her report. The results of the first year's work were exceedingly discouraging. Of late the work had been more encouraging.

Mrs. H. C. Hedges of Mansfield, O., secretary of the bureau of Mississippi, reported. This bureau has the care of the Elizabeth L. Rust Industrial home, Holly Springs, Miss.; Bennett Industrial home, Clarkson, Miss., and the Bennett academy, Clarkson, Miss. Mrs. C. L. Roach of Washington conducted a prayer service.

The afternoon session opened with devotional exercises by Miss E. A. Smith, superintendent of the Buffalo Deaconess home. Mrs. Jane Bancroft Robinson of Detroit reviewed the year's work of the deaconess' bureau and three-minute reports were received from the secretaries of deaconess' homes connected with the Woman's Home Missionary society. Rev. Dr. A. H. Ames, president of the national training school at Washington, spoke. Mrs. Anna Kent of East Orange, N. J., spoke of the work done at the Bancroft Rest home, and Mrs. S. W. Davis of Wilkesburg, Pa., of the work at the Thompson Rest home.

Bishop C. C. McCabe presided at the deaconess' anniversary celebration last evening. The service opened with devotional exercises by Mrs. E. Turney, superintendent of the Philadelphia Deaconess' home. Miss Henrietta A. Bancroft of Washington gave an account of her experiences as a field secretary. Miss Iva May Durham of Normal, Ill., spoke of the work of the deaconess-at-large. Bishop C. C. McCabe made an address on the subject, "Help These Women."

minutes and 18 seconds actual time and 6 minutes and 34 seconds corrected time, thus completing the series for the America's cup with a magnificent rough weather duel and a glorious Yankee victory. The weather was the kind the Irish yachtsman had been wanting, but his boat failed to win. For the eleventh time the attempt of a foreigner to wrest from America the yachting supremacy of the world has failed.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 21.—It was understood that former United States Senator John I. Mitchell of Tioga county will be chosen to fill the vacancy on the Republican state ticket created by the withdrawal of Josiah R. Adams of this city, candidate for superior court judge. The state committee is meet here this afternoon to act on the matter.

Senator Quay, who is in Florida, was communicated with and he quickly wired his acquiescence to whatever the leaders on the ground might decide upon. Senator Penrose, who has been on a stumping tour in Ohio, arrived here and also looked with favor on Judge Mitchell's nomination. It is said that Judge Mitchell's name was advanced by Governor Stone, who is a Tioga countian and a warm friend of Judge Mitchell.

Other names mentioned for the vacancy were those of Judge Dimmer Beeber of this city, ex-Attorney General Palmer of Luzerne county, V. Gilpin Robinson of Delaware county, Judge Archibald of Lackawanna and Judge John H. Greer of Butler.

NEGRO CREMATED, ROPED TO A STAKE.

Horrible Punishment For an Awful Crime, the Burning of a Woman and Four Children.

CANTON, Miss., Oct. 21.—The little town of St. Anne, 20 miles east of Canton, in Leake county, was the scene of a horrible affair—a sequel to the burning of the Gambrell family. Joe Leflore, a negro, who was captured by a posse, confessed that he, in company with Bob and Andrew Smith, other negroes, had tied Mrs. Gambrell and her four children to the floor of the house, saturated the surroundings with kerosene and burned the unfortunate people alive. The negro after the confession of the crime was promptly roped to a stake in the Gambrell yard and burned to a crisp, while the citizens looked on in grim silence.

Another negro, Bob Smith, was saved just in the nick of time, as some doubt existed as to his guilt.

Andrew Smith escaped from the mob while Leflore was being burned and has not yet been captured. Bob Smith was tied to another stake and a fire started, though he was finally released, as there was a possibility of his proving his innocence.

Andrew Smith will be recaptured and if it is proven that he and his brother Bob are guilty, it is thought that no power can save them from a similar fate to that meted out to Leflore.

INGHAM AND NEWITT GUILTY.

Jury at Philadelphia So Found, and Recommended Mercy.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 21.—Ellery Pin Ingham, ex-United States district attorney, and Harvey K. Newitt, his law partner and former assistant district attorney, were found guilty of conspiracy and bribery in connection with the revenue stamp counterfeiting plot headed by William M. Jacobs and William L. Kendig, the Lancaster cigar manufacturers.

The bail of the defendants was increased from $20,000 to $40,000 and was furnished by Alexander Balfour, a paper manufacturer of this city, and William H. Clark, cashier of the Quaker City National bank. A. S. L. Shields, counsel for the defendants, made an appeal for a new trial. No time was set for the argument.

OIL CITY WORKMAN KILLED.

OIL CITY, Oct. 21.—The wall of a building being erected by the National Transit company, for the proposed new steel plant, fell, burying a number of workmen in the ruins. A workman named Allen was killed. Two other men were seriously injured.

THE EAST END.

ANOTHER TIME IS SET

Sewerpipe Works to Start In February.

STORY COMES FROM COMPANY

Will Make Sagger Clay at Laughlin's New Plant Monday Morning—An Oil Well Being Drilled on the Fisher Farm. Burning Old Ties.

Again the time has been set for the starting of the Knowles, Taylor & Anderson sewerpipe works and February 1 is the date set for resuming. When Mr. T. F. Anderson left for the south recently he stated he did not know when the works would start, but the statement has been made by one of the Anderson company whose authority on the matter cannot be questioned. It will soon be a year since the last pipe was made and all the men who worked at the plant before it shut down have secured positions elsewhere. The starting of the works would be welcomed by everyone residing in East End. With this plant and the new potteries in operation, East End would be a busy suburb.

NEXT MONDAY

Sagger Clay Will Be Mixed by Steam in Laughlin's New Plant.

On Monday morning it is the intention of the Laughlin Pottery company to start the mixing of sagger clay at their new plant by steam. The pug mill, which was run by hand power outside the building for several weeks past, has been placed in the building and today it was given a trial run. It will not be many days until the entire plant is in operation. The engineer of the new plant will be Gene Jester. He has been employed by the company to place the machinery together, and the company has retained him to run the plant after the works are started.

PLANTING TREES.

Fruit and Shade Trees Being Planted About the New Park Road.

Shade trees are being planted along the boulevard leading to the new Thompson park, and on the Thompson farm fruit trees are being planted. Work on the Dixon road is at a standstill, and Mr. Dixon stated yesterday afternoon he could not do any more work until council viewed or accepted the offer. Dixon says it will be "the only" road in East End when it is completed.

Burning Old Ties.

The railroad company has issued an order that all ties unfit for use be destroyed, and yesterday the section force from Liverpool set fire to not less than 50 ties in the hollow near Ralston's crossing. They were gathered from the road between Dry run and Mulberry street crossing.

Are Drilling For Oil.

Miller Brothers have commenced drilling for oil on the Fisher farm near the state line. The well is expected to be in 10 days and has every prospect the drillers say of making a good showing.

His Work Completed.

A. L. Harrington, of Boston, Mass., who has been spending several days at the new Laughlin pottery doing some work on the new engine, left for the east yesterday afternoon.

Electric Power.

The American Laundry company have made arrangements to equip their plant with electric power. A generator has been purchased and it will be placed in position next week.

Will Receive Their Increase.

The motormen will finish their first pay since their increase was granted next Thursday. The week will end tonight, but the company hold back five days on the men.

A Dangerous Place.

During the past 10 days two car doors have fallen from freight cars as they were passing Mulberry street. One of these doors is now standing back of the bell tower.

Extending the Siding.

The railroad company has completed the work of extending the siding at the power house. About 40 feet was added.

Hickory Famine There Too.

Mr. Robert Hill, of East Liverpool, proprietor of the cooper shop at the new Salem china works, was called here to look after furnishing hickory wood for making the hoops used in making barrels. THE ARMOUR COMPANY

A Superb Storage System For East Liverpool.

PERFECTION TRUEST ECONOMY

The Preservation of Products Has Been Reduced to a Science—The Public Is Invited to Inspect This Admirable Market on Tuesday, October 24.

The ARMOUR COMPANY never does things by halves. It caters to the public in the most acceptable manner, sparing no pains nor expense in securing the very best goods the market affords. This company has now over 300 branch houses throughout the United States, and the same spirit of enterprise controls in the branches as in the headquarters at Chicago.

The trade of the company has assumed massive proportions in East Liverpool and the surrounding country, and it has been found necessary to erect a building at this point which will meet the demands made by the public at large. Mr. F. Blair, of Chicago, an expert in the special feature of the erection of cold storage houses, and a trusted employe of Armour & Co., has had charge of the construction of the building at East Liverpool. The structure is now about completed and will be open for the inspection of the public on next Tuesday afternoon and evening, Oct. 24. Mr. J. W. Davis, well known in this city, is general manager at this point, and he extends a cordial invitation to our citizens to inspect affairs in the domain over which he has control.

The pencil shaver of the NEWS REVIEW visited the establishment the other day and received a warm welcome. Mr. Homer D. Clark has charge of the handsome little front office, furnished very nicely, with all appliances ready at hand for the expediting of practical business affairs.

Mr. Blair happened to be present and courteously offered to escort us through the establishment and point out to us the arrangement of affairs in general.

The basement or lower floor is devoted partly to storage and partly to the keeping of butter, eggs, etc. The facilities for cleanliness are simply superb. The floor is solid concrete, six inches thick, rendering it impervious to the attacks of rodents or other vermin. In flushing or washing the basement, the floor is so constructed that the water gravitates to the center and passes through traps to the sewer beneath. The butter and egg department is hemmed in by massive walls and doors, and is kept at the temperature desired by means of ventilators. The cold air is furnished from the cold storage room immediately overhead, passing downward through the medium of three registers. Full arrangements are made to keep the butter, eggs and pickled goods sweet and pure, and nothing is sold from this department but that which will pass the most critical and minute inspection.

Passing to the second floor we find a fine department devoted to smoked meats, so arranged and cared for as to make the display very desirable and appetizing to the man who is in search of tempting and palatable meats.

Then we step into an atmosphere which chills, and find ourselves in the cold storage room, devoted to fresh meats, embracing choicest beef, veal, pork, mutton, lamb, etc. The temperature is held at about four degrees above freezing. The ice bunkers controlling this atmosphere have a capacity of about 150 tons. The room is lighted brilliantly by means of electricity. Ventilators carry all foul air through the roof of the structure. Handsome shades are at the windows and windows are screened. An immense amount of lumber has been used in the construction of the building—lumber of the very best and finest quality. Enclosing the storage room are eighteen inches of boards and insulating paper, with air spaces separating the various layers. Galvanized iron lines the lower part of the smoked meat department and the cold storage room, rising four feet above the floors, enabling the cleansing thereof to be accomplished thoroughly and rapidly when house cleaning is in order. The upper walls and ceilings have been finished with FOUR coats of the very best white paint, and the necessary hardware made use of is the very best and most durable manufactured.

Tramways, overhead, pass from the outer to the inner rooms, passing in every direction in the departments, controlled by a new system of "switches," a device which must be seen and inspected in order to be fully understood and appreciated. It is the "Rice-Bittenmiller" patent, a new thing, just placed upon the market, Mr. Blair assuring the writer that this is the second building in which it has been made use of.

The cars loaded with meat are run in upon the switch just outside the main building, and the great beeves are then transferred to the hook attached to the tramway leading to the cold storage room, the use of the "Rice-Bittenmiller" switch enabling the operator to place, with the greatest ease and celerity, the great masses of beef at any point in the room desired, where they remain until sold, when they are run out and weighed and loaded at the transfer platform, subject to delivery at the option of the purchaser, delivery wagons being always in readiness by the Armour company.

Elevators, half automatic, are made use of in passing goods from the lower to the upper floors, doors shutting automatically, assuring absolute safety to operator. The upper or third story is used as a storage room and ice bunker, great quantities of ice being consumed yearly.

Manager Davis informs the scribe that this storehouse controls all points from Rochester to Alliance, including Wellsville, Hammondsville, Irondale, Kensington, Hanover, Salineville and other points, and that he is ever ready to meet any and every demand made for the splendid products of the Armour company. Verbal or written orders will receive prompt attention, while the call of telephone No. 17 will be promptly answered and legitimate orders complied with instantaneously.

A pleasing feature in connection with the Armour company is that it caters to home industry in every legitimate business way and manner, securing supplies of every kind possible from our local merchants and business men, and giving employment to local laborers and mechanics.

Lady demonstrators will be on hand on next Tuesday afternoon and evening, October 24, and they will take special pleasure in catering to the wishes and desires of visitors, while courteous attendants will do their utmost to make the public at large welcome to the inspection of this splendid industry added to our hustling pottery center.

Some Pertinent Questions That Can Be Answered With One Reply.

Why is it that in East Liverpool and its suburbs with a combined population of 1,400 there is only one medical preparation which gives statements from residents to back up its representations?

Why is it that Doan's Kidney Pills do this in East Liverpool as in every other town and city of any importance in the Union?

Why is it that there are advertised in every newspaper a dozen remedies and only one can supply local proof, local endorsement of its claims?

The solution of the problem is simple. Only one remedy has the curing and staying power. Other remedies make all kinds of gigantic yet futile efforts to get local proof but the attempt ends in producing a statement or two from places that as far as East Liverpool is concerned might just as well live in the moon.

Here is East Liverpool proof which backs up the merits.

Mrs. William James who lives at 283 Third street, says: "I was troubled off and on for eight years with a weakness of the back and kidneys, a dull aching pain across my loins, up under my shoulder blades and rheumatic pains in my right shoulder. I was very susceptible to changes in the weather and was so bad at times that I could scarcely stand and support my own weight. The trouble affected my nervous system, causing a frequent fluttering of the heart and shortness of breath. I generally resorted to porous plasters, but the relief was only temporary. I got Doan's Kidney Pills at the W. & W. pharmacy and obtained instant relief. The symptoms all left, and there was nothing wrong with my kidneys after the treatment."

Doan's Kidney Pills are for sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Mailed by Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S. Remember the name Doan's and take no other.

One of the local coal dealers informed the NEWS REVIEW this morning that, notwithstanding reports to the contrary, the coal famine was still on. WINE OF CARDUI

HEALTHY OLD AGE.

LARUE, BENTON CO. ARK., Aug. 4.
I am 49 years old and have been suffering with Change of Life. I had flooding spells so bad that none thought I could live. My husband got me Wine of Cardui and it saved my life. I am like another person since taking it.

MRS. E. B. TOWNSEND.

Wine of Cardui

It is the devout wish of nearly all people to live to a ripe old age. None of us want to die young. This universal desire can be realized if care be taken of the health in early and middle life. A little precaution then will add many years to our existence. Death can be kept away a long time. Happy, healthy old age will be the lot of the woman who promptly corrects the ailments which afflict her sex. In youth, Wine of Cardui will take the female child safely over the dividing line between girlhood and womanhood. As a wife she needs it to help her through the trials of pregnancy and childbirth with as little discomfort as possible. At the Change of Life it will help her over the dangerous place that appears in her pathway between 40 and 50. Then will come many years of truly blissful existence. She will grow old slowly and gracefully. To the last she will preserve that charm and beauty which are always characteristic of perfectly healthy grandmothers.

DIDN'T Bryan talk in Ohio in '96?

EVERY vote for McLean is a vote for Aginaldo.

ONCE more Democratic success is the hope of rebels.

LIPTON is now convinced that it was never intended for a tea cup.

PRIZEFIGHTING and yachting are in the same class. Wind is indispensable to both.

PERHAPS Bryan is assisting McLean because of "the money that is in it, not the honor."

THE Salem Herald is printing some very fine dog news these days. Probably prefers that to boosting McLean.

If the correspondents keep on killing off Boers 300 and 1,500 at a clip the war will be over in a week through shortage of Boers.

SOME of the war correspondents who distinguished themselves as long distance liars during the Spanish-American can war seem to have been assigned to duty on the Transvaal.

THE FIRST LECTURE.

John Temple Graves has a national reputation as an orator and lecturer. He will open the high school course on Oct. 26 with his splendid lecture: "The Reign of the Demagogue." Mr. Graves is a southern editor, who has been on the lecture platform some years and has everywhere met with flattering success. His delivery is perfect, his style logical and his matter instructive and interesting. East Liverpool people who attend his lecture will enjoy an intellectual treat.

A CONVENIENCE.

Next to having the county seat moved to this city, or having a steam, electric or automobile line between here and Lisbon, the holding of court at Wells-ville is the greatest convenience the people of the southern portion of the county could have in the way of accessible justice. The former session at Wells-ville was found to be of great advantage, and from the number of cases from this end of the county now on the list, the coming session will be equally advantageous in the way of saving time and money to those interested and to the county officials and taxpayers.

MAKE IT BIG.

It is not enough that Ohio should go Republican this fall. The majority should be so big that McLeanism will be buried forever. Bryan and Aginaldo must get no comfort from a shrunken Republican vote. Democracy must have no moral victory. The Republicans of East Liverpool and Columbiana county will fail in their fall duty if every Republican vote is not polled November 7. It will not do to think that McLean has no chance and to stay at home. Democrats have been elected in rock-ribbed Republican states by such over-confidence. Get out the vote. The majority cannot be too big.

DON'T DEAL IN FAKES.

Don't take any stock in what are best termed "FAIRY TALES." Support first-class home industries, solid and substantial, in preference to taking the CHANCES offered by fluent and persuasive strangers, men who have gold bricks to offer in exchange for the very smallest investment on your part. Business sense and ordinary prudence will save you from being victimized. Don't be too greedy in the race for wealth. All is not gold that glitters. We have fine savings institutions in East Liverpool—organizations which are solid and reputable and to be relied upon. Slow and sure oftentimes wins the race in business contests. Be wise and make judicious investments in home institutions. Investors in the "American Investors' company" will fully appreciate this editorial.

NEWS OF THE POTTERY WORLD

What Is Going On Around the Plants of the Ceramic City and Other Pottery Centers.

The decorating department at the Salem pottery has not started yet and no head decorator has been engaged. The plant will not be ready to ship any decorated goods until November. Some white ware has already been shipped.

The kilnmen at the Mercer, Trenton, are working overtime.

The erection of the McCoy stoneware pottery at Roseville, O., has stopped because the bricklayers will not handle non-union brick.

Yesterday cars of ware were sent out by Thompson's to Kansas; Knowles, Taylor & Knowles' to San Francisco, and Standard to New Orleans.

Since Mrs. John Owens returned to the city many old English potters have called at her home to inquire about the potteries in the old country. While in England Mrs. Owens visited many plants and found them all to be rushed with orders, and in some instances the clay shops were making overtime. Many of the English potters in Liverpool have worked in the same shops which Mrs. Owens visited.

The East Palestine pottery is full up on lower priced goods, but can still fill orders on the better grades.

S. W. Smith, for several years a packer at the Knowles, Taylor & Knowles, left for Cleveland this morning, where he has taken a position as packer in a jobbing house at that place.

A. D. Wilson, who has been in the east for the Toronto pottery for several weeks, returned to the city last night. He reports trade very good.

Decorators and kilnhands are scarce and some of the new potteries are having their troubles in securing workmen in these departments.

The strike at the East Liverpool is still unsettled.

The Weir Pottery company, of Monmouth, Ill., have begun the erection of their new plant and expect to have it ready for business January 1. The carpenters will commence work as soon as possible, and when started between 60 and 75 men will be employed. The site has been purchased by the Monmouth Business Men's association, and will be donated to the new industry.

Vice President Jesse Jackson of the Brotherhood, will soon organize another local in Wheeling.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Powell, now of Sebring, but formerly of Paris, a daughter. As this is the first birth that has occurred in Sebring the parents are highly elated.

Charles Bowers, of the Knowles, Taylor & Knowles old end, is ill with lead colic.

The kilnmen at the Diamond have worked at night upon several occasions during the week. Last night it was after 10 o'clock when they finished.

The Crockery Journal says the active demand for kilnmen here will become more urgent when the new potteries commence operations. The extra demand for decorators has been met by all the plants educating operatives.

To the regular demand is now being added the extra orders for fine holiday goods, and these include all the finest grades of dinner ware in china semi-porcelain and porcelain, decorated novelties and specialties of all kinds, and the demand for small decorated odds and ends is the largest ever experienced.—China, Glass and Lamps.

White's pottery, of Utica, N. Y., was incorporated last week with $50,000 capital to manufacture crockery. Incorporators: Charles M. White, N. E. White, E. D. Fuller, all of Utica.

There is no change in the sales schedule. A firmness on present lines is maintained. No one now seems to have any fear of losing orders by demanding the regular scale, as all are so full that there is nowhere else for the customer to go.—Crockery Journal.

The remainder of this year will show a marvelous increase in production over the last two months of any preceding year.

The furnaces in one of the glost kilns at the Murphy pottery were repaired today.

The Wheeling pottery reports a demand for pressers.

The Keswick pottery is now in full operation.

New York reports a steady flow of trade to home manufacturers, and a falling off in the import trade.

Edward Menge, of East Palestine, is now a jiggerman at the Warwick, Wheeling.

Wm. Connelly, of this city, is now one of the Riverside's Wheeling pottery workers.

Trenton reports orders up to the limit, and more coming in every day, every establishment in the city is behind on shipments.

The Quaker Valley plant at Rogers was started five years ago by three young men from the East Palestine pottery, who put in about $5,000. The town gave a bonus of $5,000 and they borrowed $5,000 more, giving a mortgage as security. The plant cost $11,500. They have sold all the stock on hand and are being pressed, it is said, for two or three bills amounting to about $1,500. They have been doing a good business, so far as volume went, says China, Glass and Lamps, but at losing prices, and have just turned down enough orders to run them the rest of the year.

DEAD LETTER OFFICE

Sends Back a Letter From an East Liverpool Wife to Her Husband.

Postmaster W. H. Surles this morning received from the dead letter office a letter mailed in this city May 12 last by Mrs. Ida McComber to her husband, Asa McComber, at El Reno, O. T. The postmaster there sent the letter to Kingfisher, O. T., whence it was returned to the dead letter office.

The letter contains a photograph of a fine baby girl, and mentions D. S. Carr, of Steubenville, as an uncle. Postmaster Surles was unable to locate Mrs. McComber, and if she will call at the post-office she can secure her letter and photograph.

A BAD CROWD.

The Police Should Disperse a Crowd Who Loaf on Sixth Street.

The police should make an effort to break up the crowd of small boys that infest Sixth street in front of the Grand Opera House. The boys congregate there every night and make life miserable for every person that passes. Last night they had for their victim a country boy, but spectators interfered and dispersed the crowd. Some wholesale arrests would have the desired effect.

KELLY WAS VERY MAD

Says His Wife Was Hit With a Stone

WHILE PLAYING THE PIANO

He Calls on the Mayor and Wants Redress at Once—Landis Went to Jail, Elmer Clendenning Paid a Fine—Other Police Cases.

A few days ago John Kelly, of Avondale street, appeared at the office of the mayor and told a heartrending tale of how Mrs. Elizabeth Reese had thrown a stone through his window and hit his wife, who was playing the piano. He was exceedingly wrothy and stated that the stone had struck his wife on the head. He swore out a complaint and Officer White went after Mrs. Reese, who appeared in court and stated that she had thrown a stone at some chickens and the stone might have hit Kelly's house, but if it did it was unintentional on her part. As she is a lady in every respect the mayor believed her story to be true and told her to go home and he would see if he could not straighten affairs with Kelly, believing that this was the best way to dispose of the case.

The mayor says he sent for Kelly and the next night he appeared, but was very unreasonable. He wouldn't settle anything, and stormed around the mayor's office at a rapid rate until the mayor grew very tired. His entire desire seemed to be to humiliate Mrs. Reese, and he was told to go home, and the case is at an end for the time being at least.

Elmer Clendenning, who was arrested yesterday by Officer Whan, was fined $7.60. He paid up and was released.

The jail is empty, the last man to get out being Thomas Lee, who succeeded in raising money to pay his fine last evening.

There has been no action taken in the case of Mary Starkey, who was arrested by Officer Grim upon a charge of taking a gold watch and chain from Frank Gray. The parents of the child will be consulted in the matter.

The board of directors of the Young Men's Christian association met last evening in the association parlors and transacted considerable business. J.

Committees were named to consider plans to have the auditorium remodeled for the purpose of holding evening classes and also to increase the water supply of the association, which at present is insufficient to the demand.

The board will meet for reorganization on the first Friday evening in November.

A STRINGENT FOOD LAW

Prohibits the Use of Arsenic or Alum in All Articles of Diet.

The law enacted by the Missouri legislature, a copy of which was recently published in our columns, and which prohibits the manufacture or sale of any article intended for food or to be used in the preparation of food, which contains alum, arsenic, ammonia, etc., places that state in the lead in the matter of sanitary legislation.

Laws restricting the use of alum in bread have been in force in England, Germany and France for many years. In this country, in Minnesota, Wisconsin, Michigan, Ohio, Kentucky and several other states, direct legislation in reference to the sale of alum baking powders has also been effected. In several of these states their sale is prohibited unless they are branded to show that they contain alum, and in the District of Columbia, under the laws of congress, the sale of bread containing alum has been made illegal.

Following are the names of some of the brands of baking powder sold in this vicinity which are shown by recent analysis to contain alum. Housekeepers and grocers should cut the list out and keep it for reference:

Baking Powder Containing Alum.

DAVIS' O. K. Contains Alum
R. B. Davis & Co., New York.
Crown. Contains Alum
J. P. Dieter Co., Chicago.
Kenton. Contains Alum
Potter-Parlin Co., Cincinnati.
Calumet. Contains Alum
Calumet Baking Powder Co., Chicago.
Delicatessen. Contains Alum
Delicatessen Baking Powder Co., New York.
I. C. Contains Alum
Jaques Mfg. Co., Chicago.

The housekeeper should bear in mind that alum makes a cheap baking powder. It costs but two cents a pound while cream of tartar costs thirty. The quality of the powder is therefore usually indicated by the price.

Looking For Lost Gold.

It is stated that yet another expedition is being arranged to recover the treasure lost when the ship General Grant foundered off the Auckland islands more than 30 years ago. The General Grant, with Ballarat miners on board, was on her way from Melbourne to London in 1866, when she was becalmed off the Auckland islands. Driven on to the shore by a heavy swell, the vessel was forced into a cave, where she sank, and out of 80 persons on board but a few were saved. It is known that there was a large quantity of gold on the General Grant, and many unsuccessful attempts have been made to recover it.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

Topic For the Week Beginning Oct. 22.—Comment by Rev. S. H. Doyle.

Topic.—An old time missionary.—Jonah III, 1-10. (A missionary meeting.)

Jonah was the son of Amittai and a native of Gath-hepher. He prophesied in the reign of Jeroboam II. God sent him on a special mission to Nineveh. Jonah disliked the mission and tried to escape to Tarshish, but God, by His providence, brought him to a realization of his mistake. He commanded him a second time to go on the mission to Nineveh, and that time he obeyed. The story of his going is found in the topical reference.

Jonah preaching in Nineveh was a typical foreign missionary.

1. Jonah was sent from God. The Lord said unto him, "Arise, go to Nineveh, that great city, and preach unto it." Missionaries must be sent of God. When Paul says in Rom. x, 15, "How shall they preach except they be sent?" he refers not to man sending forth missionaries, but to God's sending forth missionaries. One who aspires to mission work should feel called of God to the work, and all who are interested in missions should earnestly pray to God to send forth laborers into His vineyards.

2. Jonah had a message from God and proclaimed it to the people. The Lord said, "Preach unto it the preaching that I bid thee." And Jonah delivered the message of God. Fearlessly, earnestly, he announced to the people the threatened destruction of the city, crying upon the streets, "Yet 40 days and Nineveh shall be overthrown." The missionary, whether at home or abroad, must get his message from God, and boldly must he proclaim the truth, and the whole truth, not only holding out overtures of mercy to all who will believe and repent, but warning men of their sure destruction if they refuse to repent and to accept the mercy of God.

3. God blessed his messenger and his message faithfully delivered, and success crowned his efforts. The people of Nineveh believed God, repented of their sins, and God staid off the threatened destruction of the city. But Jonah, for political reasons, was displeased at his own success, an anomaly in this respect. God will still bless the faithful efforts of His servants to win the world for Him. The task seems tremendously difficult, the work impossible of completion, and yet nothing is impossible with God. With one missionary God could bring the great, wicked Nineveh to its knees, and God is just as powerful and just as willing to bless His word today as in the days of Jonah.

Jonah's fidelity and success should encourage all who are interested in mission work. It shows that it is not impossible to win the world for God in Jesus Christ.

Bible Readings.—Ex. iii, 1-10; Isa. vi, 1-10; lii, 7; Nah. i, 15; Math. ix, 35-38; xxviii, 18-20; Mark iii, 14-19; Luke x, 1-12; John i, 38-51; iv, 25-30; Acts vi, 1-7; viii, 26-40; xiii, 1-3; xvi, 8-12; Rom. x, 14, 15.

The Children in Church.

"Here am I and the children thou hast given me." That is well. That is as it should be—the children at church and in the family pew. They understand more than you suppose, and they are solemnly impressed by the occasion, even if they cannot understand the sermon. "But they will get so tired going to school and then to Sunday school." Not so very tired as you suppose. They rise up and change posture during singing. The service is only about an hour and a quarter long. Then comes a recess to go into Sunday school, then only about an hour there, and no such hard study as in school. Really, do you see? Half a day at school is more severe than a whole service at church, including the Sunday school. Besides, if they cannot attend both, the Sunday school can be omitted. Our very best Sunday school workers will tell you that the church is worth more to the children than the school. If he can have both but the one, give him the church. But do not be whimsical. He can have both. It will not hurt him. Bring the children.—Central Church.

Fearless Speech.

It is pleasant to say smooth things in this easy going, time serving age, but it may not be the wisest. A tendency to point out the good things in the characters and lives of wicked men and worldly Christians and pass over their sins and defects is one cause of the failure of the church to keep its hold on the masses. The Bible hides no sin or fault of the servants of God. It is admired because of its candor and fidelity to the truth. Those ministers of the gospel and religious teachers who talk out straight to their people, hewing to the line, speaking the truth in love, have the largest hearing and the most vigorous membership. God pity a ministry that cries "Peace, peace!" when there is no peace. A loving, fearless, direct appeal to sinful men, laying open their sins and showing them a better way, is the kind of preaching and teaching the times demand.—Religious Telescope.

MODUS VIVENDI IN FORCE.

Note of Great Britain Accepting Alaskan Agreement Delivered in Washington.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—Mr. Tower, the British charge here, called at the state department and handed to Secretary Hay a note formally accepting for his government the proposition for the temporary adjustment of the Alaskan boundary line proposed by Secretary Hay in his note. With that act the long expected modus vivendi relative to the vexed boundary question went into effect.

The state department is confident that it has conserved every American interest in the arrangement without unjustly treating Canada. The divisional line on the west pass, by which the Dalton trail is reached, is placed 22½ miles above Pyramid harbor, which is regarded under the treaty as tidewater mark, so the Canadians are not allowed to reach any point on the Lynn canal.

Moreover there is no permission given for a free port or even for the free transfer across American territory of Canadian goods except of miners' belongings. Those matters may figure later on when it comes to a permanent boundary line, but they are not touched upon in the modus.

NATIONAL W. C. T. U. MET.

Large Attendance of Delegates From Throughout the Country at Seattle, Wash.

SEATTLE, Wash., Oct. 21.—The national convention of the W. C. T. U. met here. For days trainloads of delegates from all parts of the country have been arriving and when the convention was called to order there was a large attendance.

The reports of the president, treasurer and corresponding secretary were heard.

PRAYER FOR THEIR CHURCH.

Presbyterians Set Aside a Half Hour Today at Synod at Erie, Pa.

ERIE, Pa., Oct. 21.—At the meeting of the Presbyterian synod the reading of the narrative created a profound impression, and the last half hour of today's session was set aside for communion among members and prayer for the spiritual welfare of the church.

Rev. John Fox, D. D., of New York, one of the secretaries of the American Bible society, addressed the session. He said it was most important this society should not be neglected; that during the past year they had translated the Bible into 400 different languages.

Dr. Agnew, chairman of board of relief fund, stated the board was organized 50 years ago with 43 families on its books; in ten years it increased to 137 ministers and families; now has 925 ministers and families; that last year they expended in supporting these $193,000, $300 annually per family being the highest pension paid.

On motion a special committee was appointed in the synod to serve in the interests of the American Bible society to see that its merits were properly brought before the people.

Last night Rev. Joseph L. Hunter, chaplain of the Fighting Tenth, addressed the meeting on missionary work in the Philippines.

TROUBLE BREWING IN SAMOA.

Three Consuls Left to Govern Unable to Agree.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 21.—The steamer Moana arrived from Australian ports via Apia, Samoa and Honolulu. The correspondent of The Associated Press at Samoa sent news of a startling character. He said under date of Oct. 6:

"The aspect of affairs in Samoa is indeed far from reassuring. There is trouble brewing, and it will come soon if the three powers do not come to aid the government and the distracted officials. The three consuls who were left here as a provisional government by the commissioners are finding their position by no means a bed of roses. It is a matter of report that the feeling between the members of the provisional government is strained."

British Squadron Ordered.

LONDON, Oct. 21.—The British channel squadron was ordered to proceed to Gibraltar next Tuesday.

A REBEL DELEGATION.

One Coming to Washington to Present Filipino Cause—Fighting by American Forces.

MANILA, Oct. 21.—The Democracia reported that the jantes in the Orient and in Europe intended to send a delegation to Washington to present the Filipino cause.

Regidor will probably be the president of the delegation and Agoncillo and Apacible will be among its members.

Three insurgent officers entered Angeles and applied to General MacArthur for permission for a Filipino commission, headed by a Filipino major general, to visit General Otis in order to discuss peace terms and order for the delivery of American prisoners, as well as to consider methods for the release of the Spanish prisoners.

The request was referred to General Otis. The insurgent officers are expected to return to receive his answer.

Captain MacKae, with a battalion of the Third infantry, and Captain Chynoweth, with a battalion of the Seventh infantry, marched to the town of Jose Mainas for the purpose of dispersing a band of 300 insurgents, under Juan Dicarot, who had recently been annoying our outposts and travelers along the road from Santa Ana to Arayat. The insurgents fled in the direction of Magalang.

The country between Angeles and Arayat was reported clear.

General Young's advance guard of General Lawton's column left Cabiao and entered San Isidro.

The American loss was one killed and three wounded. The heaviest resistance met with was at San Fernando, where the enemy destroyed a bridge.

General Pio del Pilar arrived from San Miguel and personally commanded the Filipinos. He and the bulk of the enemy retreated up the river. One Spaniard and 15 insurgents were captured. The loss of the enemy was not known. The townspeople appeared to be friendly.

SEA COAST DEFENSES.

Wilson Asks For Large Sums For United States, Porto Rico and Havana. Rivers and Harbors.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—The annual report of the chief of engineers of the army, Brigadier General John M. Wilson, submits estimates for river and harbor works already authorized by congress but not provided for by continuing contracts, amounting to $26,906,821. In addition he asks for $15,582,626 to carry on works already contracted for.

The report shows that the existing approved projects for seacoast defenses contemplate the emplacement of about 500 heavy guns of 8, 10, 12 and 16-inch caliber, of about 800 rapid-fire guns and of about 1,000 mortars, at an estimated approximate cost for the engineering work of $55,000,000.

An estimate of $1,500,000 is submitted for continuing the work of construction of these batteries and for the defense of Porto Rico. The sum of $5,663,000 was allotted by the president out of the national defense fund in all for the engineering department.

Under the head of fortifications, General Wilson says that in addition to the 30 localities in the United States for which projects for permanent seacoast batteries have been adopted, the defense of several other localities is now under consideration. Considerable study has been given to the subject of the defense of our insular possessions, resulting in complete projects for San Juan and preliminary projects for Honolulu and Pearl harbor, so that the construction of batteries for these places can begin as soon as congress appropriates the funds.

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

Topic For the Week Beginning Oct.
22, "An Old Time Missionary."
Text, Jonah iii. 1-10.

"Let them turn every eye from their evil way. Who can tell if God will turn and repent, and turn away from His fierce anger, that we perish not?"

A populous and wicked city, an impassioned preacher and a righteous God are three factors which have more than once in history been found in close association. The relations of each to the other two may be varied with great changes in the results.

The unwavering note of all Hebrew prophecy from the earliest time has been the rulership of a righteous God in the affairs of men and the disastrous effects of wickedness. Clearer and yet more clear has it sounded from Noah to Moses, from Samuel to Malachi.

Not Israel alone, but all nations, all individuals, are bound by the eternal law of right. Whoever disobeys must suffer. The incorrigible must perish.

In the midst of the most luxurious and licentious city of the times there suddenly appears a strange man of rude speech and with a most startling cry. He offers no goods for sale, he seeks no friendships, but walks the street with solemn tread, robed as a prophet of the Hebrews, and cries continually, "Forty days and Nineveh shall be destroyed." To its profoundest depths the whole population is stirred. Whence he came no one knows. On what side the danger impends none can learn. He offers no explanation. He answers no inquiries. Is it from the clouds above, from the earth or the river? Who can tell? What armed enemy has arisen, and what force can he muster? The very uncertainty adds to the terror of the message. What is the escape? From the king to the slave, every one seeks to avert the disaster. Evil and luxury are laid aside. Acts of devotion and piety are practiced. Vice is replaced by virtue. All cry to God to avert the blow.

The people have found the clew of safety. God, who was angry with the people for their evil and determined to punish their wrongdoing, has reached the end He desires when they turn from their wickedness and violence and do right. The lesson is for all people and all ages. Whoever does the evil shall suffer for it. Whoever turns and seeks God and righteousness shall be prospered and blessed.

Constancy Better Than Curiosity.

Peter asked Jesus about John, "Lord, what shall this man do?" The reply gave no satisfaction to Peter's inquisitiveness. It was as if Jesus had said: "That is none of your business. Enough for each man to attend to his own affairs."

The need for every one is constancy in doing his own appointed work rather than curious prying into God's dealings with others.

Many complain of the hardness of their own lots, not so much because the load laid on them is excessive as because they see others whose burdens they fancy are lighter and tasks more agreeable. No amount of envy ever was able to make an interchange of lot with others. Fretting only increases the irritation. After all, suppose things are not all evened up; make the best of things as you find them.

Meditation.

This is one of the most difficult of Christian duties, but one of the most important. We can more easily read a dozen books than think properly and meditate upon the contents of one. But our inner thought is the matter of moment and not the recreation which came in reading. We may become intellectually dissipated and incapable of proper mental digestion unless we exercise great care. Read less and that of the best and think carefully of what is read is a good rule. Mental dyspepsia is one of the most prevalent complaints of the time. We devour much and digest little and lose power of enjoying the really good by pains of indigestion, loss of appetite and vitiated taste.

Not the number of chapters of Bible read, but the nourishment of soul derived, is the important question. Read some. Think much.

With Cords.

It is the strength of the weakest lines of the net that is the measure of its worth. If a few are old and worn, there is danger of a break and loss. Fix up the lines of your private devotions. Read the Bible, think about it, pray and worship God in quiet.

Fix up the cords of family prayer, the lines of church attendance. How is the string to the purse adjusted? Fix that all right for God. How about personal testimony? Are you talking for Christ wherever you can? What are your habits? Any little vices, common things you think are not very bad, but a little bad? Got any secret corners with a little rubbish, a little darkness? Better fix all up. Mend the old nets, clear the dark corners of the soul. It is easier to live a whole souled Christian life than a half hearted one. It pays better too.

Not Worthy, but Willing.

Not worthy, O Lord, of Thy pardon,
Not fit to partake of Thy grace;
Not worthy, my Saviour, but longing
To live in the light of Thy face.
Not worthy to cling to the promise
Of cleansing and healing divine,
But eager to come at Thy bidding
And claim all Thou givest as mine.

It is not because I have asked Thee,
Though Thou hast encouraged my prayer,
But Thou, who dost love me, hast offered
My sins and my sorrows to bear.
God offered, and I have accepted
The cleansing, the joy and the light,
And into my life there is flowing
A wonderful beauty and might.

Still higher, as onward I journey,
My will rises toward Thine own,
For God has accepted a sinner,
And I have accepted a throne.
There never was soul more unworthy
To meet with compassion like Thine;
That I should be near to a kingdom,
And God, the eternal, be mine.

ANOTHER MONOPOLY FAKE.

Why President McKinley Could Not Grant Another Cable Franchise.

The pitiful plight of the Democrats in being deprived of all reason for receiving the support of the intelligent voter in this campaign is becoming every day more apparent in the easily confuted "roorbacks" published in the Democratic papers.

The Democratic papers have accused President McKinley of favoring monopolies because Secretary Alger could not grant the Commercial Cable company the privilege of landing its cable in Cuba.

The facts are these: Senator Foraker, for the purpose of protecting the Cubans against the schemes of promoters and others, introduced an amendment to the last army appropriation bill, providing:

That no franchises or concessions of any kind whatever shall be granted by the United States, or by any military or other authority whatever in the island of Cuba during the occupation thereof by the United States.

The Commercial Cable company asked for a concession or a franchise which congress had expressly prohibited.

Further, the present cable between the United States and Cuba was established before the Spanish war, on a guarantee by Spain that for 20 years the company should have the exclusive right to maintain and operate a cable between Cuba and the United States.

This concession the United States was bound to regard, because paragraph 3 of article 8 of the treaty of peace between Spain and the United States provides that the relinquishment of Spanish authority in Cuba "can not impair in any respect the property or rights which by law belong to the peaceful possession of property of all kinds."

President McKinley was prohibited both by treaty, which, under the constitution, is the supreme law of the land, and by express act of congress from granting the commission sought by the Commercial Cable company. Yet because he did not violate the law the Democrats criticize him for protecting a monopoly which he is powerless to break.

Over Present Work.

Enthusiasm over present work, not over future accomplishments, means the largest practical results day by day in the Lord's service. Earnestness is not a quality for special performances, but for daily use. It covers life as it is and as it comes according to divine appointment. —Presbyterian.

A Light Attracting Others.

If I in my own person and daily walk quietly resist heaviness of custom, coldness of hope, timidity of faith, then without wishing, contriving or even knowing it I am a light silently drawing as many as have vision and are fit to walk in the same path. —John Morley in "Essay on Emerson."

You can, of course, do as you please, but you will have to settle the matter with your God some day. —Lutheran.

UNION LABELS.

It should be a deep-rooted principle of all union workmen and union sympathizers, and particularly those members of the different organizations of East Liverpool, to buy nothing but Union Label goods, in preference to all others. And why not? If we ask fair wages for our labor, why should we buy goods made at unfair wages by others?

The Union Label in every industry is a guarantee of fair wages, decent working hours, and union labor employed.

PEGGY COOLEY.

R. M. Martin had his right hand badly injured by being clawed by an owl.

The river is stationary and the marks today registered the same as that of yesterday.

The East Liverpool social club have arranged for an opening of their rooms next Friday evening.

The quarantine was raised from the residence of Thomas Watkins, on College street, this morning.

The agent who will assume the management of the local freight office will arrive in the city Monday.

Hope Castle, No. 33, Knights of the Golden Eagle, will celebrate their ninth anniversary Tuesday evening.

Officer Mahony was in Vanport, yesterday, attending the funeral of an old friend who died Tuesday evening.

The mail sent from this place on the late train, last night, was very heavy. About 10 pouches were dispatched.

Next week four people will leave this place for the west. Two will go to Los Angeles while one will go to Denver.

J. J. McCormick, general agent of the river division of the Cleveland and Pittsburg road, spent last night in the city.

A hot box on the engine attached to the Pittsburg accommodation train caused it to lie at the passenger station 15 minutes this morning.

An escape pipe on the west wall of city hall is in a bad condition. The pipe is broken and a strong wind will cause it to fall. Improvements should be made at once.

It is probable the revival services at the Gardendale chapel will be continued next week. At the meeting last night there were eight conversions, making 32 for the five nights.

Mrs. M. Moore left this morning for Parkersburg, W. Va., where she will visit friends for several weeks. From there she will go to Little Hocking, Washington county, where she will look after a farm in which she is interested.

When the early accommodation train pulled into the station this morning Conductor Garren discovered a negro beating his way. Officer White was at the station and when he and the conductor went after the individual he had made good his escape. He got on the train at Wellsville.

Mrs. James Little, of Philadelphia, who has been the guest of Mrs. B. K. Little, left yesterday afternoon for Steubenville. She will attend the Cook-Hogen wedding next Tuesday and will then return to her home in Philadelphia accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Gallagher.

There is no decrease in the amount of ware being shipped from this place. Never in the history of the city were the rollers at the freight depot compelled to work as hard as they do at present. Yesterday in the neighborhood of 20 cars were loaded and sent out from the outbound platform, to say nothing of the car load freight sent out.

A two-foot strip of ground owned by Mrs. Kinney on Oblique street is blocking the work of laying a sewer. The city has purchased ground on either side of the small tract and when workmen commenced to dig there yesterday they were stopped. Engineer George is now investigating the matter and will make a report to council at the next meeting.

BUSINESS RECORDS.

Dun's Review Says It Is Growing In Most Lines Failures For the Week.

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade issued today said in part:

In most lines business continues to expand, though in some there are signs that buying has been checked, either because prices have outrun the views of buyers or because recent purchases have been so heavy that nobody is left in need. Prices are still advancing in almost every line, supported by rising prices of materials, and works everywhere are still crowded to their utmost capacity, while at many points it is found hard to get enough competent hands. But the volume of business expressed in values rises much more than prices, showing a remarkable increase in quantities of goods exchanged.

The outbreak of war in South Africa has brought no such changes as many feared. In England the markets have treated it as an event already overdiscussed, and relations with this country were not appreciably affected.

Wheat has declined 1½ cents in spite of unfavorable crop reports, and western receipts do not keep up with the unprecedented movement of last year, having been but 23,454,400 bushels, against 30,592,494 bushels during the three weeks of October of last year. But Atlantic exports, flour included, have been in three weeks of October 10,679,216 bushels, against 9,686,226 bushels last year, and Pacific exports 1,539,188 bushels, against 2,298,312 bushels last year. Beyond doubt prices would rise far and fast with such a foreign demand, if official and other current reports of yield were fully credited. Corn exports add testimony as to foreign needs, having been in three weeks 10,924,406 bushels, against 7,002,039 last year.

Wool has enlisted a powerful speculative interest, and sales of 11,293,000 pounds for the week at the three chief markets represent about twice the consumption. But it is stated that manufacturers, exclusive of the American Woolen company, have been buying quite freely and while goods for men's wear, outside of worsteds, were not particularly active, there has been excellent business in dress goods.

Sales of 50,000 tons Bessemer pig and a reported demand for 100,000 tons billets in a bare market at Pittsburg have made quotations less intelligent than usual. Bessemer sales at $23 for next year, and $24.50 for this year, at Pittsburg, are reported, with billet sales, at $39 to $40, and sales of sheet bars at $36 per ton. The western market is strong, and the eastern not changed. While large orders for bars are refused at Pittsburg by the works, which are full for many months ahead, others just starting are seeking such orders at 2.1 cents, and the Chicago and Pittsburg markets are still full of orders for plates, although the works at Pittsburg have nearly caught up, and some of them are now taking only 2.75 cents against 2.90 cents last week.

Some works are also taking orders for sheets at $3.10, and in other directions there are signs that the enormous production begins to be felt. There is a possibility of check owing to shortage of cars at Connellsville, which restricts delivery of coke, the output for the week having been 190,298 tons, with more ovens in operation and prices unchanged.

Failures for the week have been 145 in the United States, against 221 last year, and 20 in Canada, against 24 last year.

Decided Against Captain Carter.

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—Judge Lacombe in the United States circuit court handed down a decision dismissing the writ of habeas corpus in the case of former Captain Oberlin M. Carter, who is under sentence of five years' imprisonment for conspiracy to defraud the government in contracts. The decision was given in a lengthy opinion, which upheld the findings of the courtmartial.
